BOTH PARTIES CLAIM ELECTION

ROGERS COMES OUT IN ELEVENTH HOUR FOR WILL ROGERS

(Special To The News)

NEW YORK, Nov. 5.—McAdoo finally came out for Smith and to offset that Democratic gain, why Coolidge came out for Hoover. So that leaves only myself in the open.

I have been studying the two parties and here is their difference. Hoover wants all the drys and as many wets as possible. Smith wants all the wets and as many drys as he can get.

Hoover says he will relieve the farmer even if he has to call congress. Smith says he will relieve the farmer even if he has to appoint a commission.

Hoover says the tariff will be kept up. Smith says the tariff will not be lowered. Hoover is strongly in favor of prosperity. Smith highly indorses prosperity.

Hoover wants no votes merely on account of religion. Smith wants no votes solely on religious grounds. But both would accept the Mohammedan vote if offered.

Hoover would like to live in the White House. Smith is not averse to living in the White House and in order to get in there, either one will promise the voters anything from perpetual motion to eternal salvation.

So I am out openly for myself. If I have any religion I have at least not advertised the fact. If I want the constitution changed or if I want it left as it is, I know that's the people's business and not mine.

I have never spent twenty years abroad nor have I spent twenty years in the shade of Brooklyn Bridge.

I have neither lived on taxpayers nor corporations.

If I was born of poor parents either in city or farm, I have kept it a personal affair.

I am not the "greatest administrator of all time," neither am I "the greatest executive a state ever had."

I have never fed the Belgians nor have I kept Tammany Hall from starving for eight years.

In fact so little is known about me that I must be just a normal American.

If defeated, I will have less squawks or alibis. I have promised nothing and am the only one of the three that can make good.

So to offset Coolidge and McAdoo I come out for myself.

Yours,

WILL.

PA NEWC OBSERVES

Pa Newc would like to know the exact figures whether or not this month is warmer than last or other preceding ones. It seems to him that we are having more warm weather for this time of the year than ever before. Mebbe not.

Football upsets in college circles Saturday were the cause of many muttered exclamations of surprise and disgust over the phones. Hundreds call for scores of games from one coast of the briny deep to the other and numerous ones must give vent to their respective feelings to the reporters who answer the phone.

Perhaps a few of the esteemed G. O. P. who have desired to wear a derby and were afraid of being thought Dems can now do so after Tuesday.

Pa Newc has had the pleasure of meeting a man who believed that all featured scientific articles concerning sea bubaboos, night demons, midnight flesh eaters and other nonentities were on the level and written by scientists. The articles Pa Newc has refenence to are those in feature sections of various Sunday yellow sheets. Pa Newc did not have time to ex-

See Record Vote In Lawrence Co. For President

Election Boards Must Speed Up Work Tuesday To Handle Electors

STATE OFFICERS ARE TO BE VOTED UPON

All Amendments Must Be Marked Separately By Electors

With the largest registration in the history of New Castle and Lawrence county, about 35,000, indications are that there will be a record vote at tomorrow's election. With electors thoroughly aroused, weather conditions are not likely to cut much figure in the total vote cast."

There are many precincts in the city and county where it will take rapid work, all day long to record the vote. In the fourth precinct of the Second ward, this city and in two Ellwood City precints, the congestion is likely to be great. In the local precinct there are over 1100 voters. In one of the Ellwood precincts there are about 1000, while in another precinct there are over 1200.

Vote Quickly

With the great number of sample ballots distributed by the county commissioners, and with publications in The News, electors ought to be acquainted with the ticket, and the method of voting. To vote a straight ticket all that is necessary is to mark a cross at the party name in the left hand column. This votes for all the candidates of the party, but does not vote for the amendments. Each amendment is to be marked separately. If you have not familiarized yourself with them do so this evening or in the morning before going to the polls, so that no unnecessary time will be wasted in the booths.

The major party tickets are as follows:

Republican—For president, Herbert Hoover; United States Senator, David A. Reed; State Treasurer, Edward Martin; Auditor General, Charles A. Waters; Judge of Superior Court, William D. Porter; Representative in Congress, J. Howard Swick; State Senator, George T. Weingartner; General Assembly, first district, Bart Richards; second, Milton A Bickett.

Democratic—President, Al Smith; United States Senator, William N. McNair; state treasurer, Edward J. Morris; Auditor General, Clinton B. Ellenberger; Judge of Superior Court, James P. Rossiter; Representative in Congress, C. Hale Sipe; State Senator, George, T. Weingartner; Representative in General Assembly, first district, Ira Ramsey; second, George Andrews.

Two Injured As Plane Crashes

Man And Woman Pilot Of Plane Injured In Crash Near Bradford, Pa.

NEW YORK MAN IS SERIOUSLY HURT

(International News Service)

BRADFORD, Pa., Nov. 5.—George Eyer of Hornell, N. Y., who with Miss Helen Crandall of Alfred, N. Y., crashed in their plane late Saturday in a dense woods near here, is in a critical condition and is not expected to live, Bradford hospital attaches stated early today.

Eyer is suffering a fractured skull. Miss Crandall, who was owner and pilot of the plane received a broken ankle bone and several fractured ribs. Her condition, hospital ataches reported is not serious.

The plane which was enroute from Oil City to Hornell crashed about 1 o'clock Saturday afternoon in a remote section of the county covered by dense woods and wild undergrowth.

Woman is Game.

First word of the accident was received here yesterday when Miss Crandall, suffering intense pain and almost at the point of collapse walked to a farmhouse six miles away for aid for her fellow flyer.

Despite her own injuries Miss Crandall walked a total of 18 miles for assistance.

Considerably weakened from her experience, Miss Crandall who led assistance back to the scene of the plane crash yesterday afternoon where Eyer lay for more than 24 hours said they had crashed during a severe storm.

Final Word On Eve Of Election Day

(EDITORIAL)

Tomorrow the voters will go to the polls in one of the most important elections in the history of the nation.

The future of the country is at stake!

With the United States just emerged from the post-war depression and headed apparently for a period of widespread prosperity, the grave question confronting the voters is whether or not to continue the direction and policies that have made this situation and will aid its progress.

The News believes that it will be a grave mistake at this time to try any experiments in government or to interrupt the Republican policies and program, and further believes that the best interests of this community, this state and the nation at large are to be safeguarded by the election of Hoover and Curtis and the entire Republican ticket by an overwhelming majority.

This has been an unusual campaign, all will admit. But we must not lose sight of the fact that the campaign shouting is over, that we are now face to face with the decision and the consequent vital effect upon this country during the next four years and probably long after.

The News has supported Herbert Hoover and the remainder of the Republican party candidates throughout the campaign because The News believes that the policies and principles of the Republican party are for the best interests of our district and the nation at large. Also because of the fact that The News believes that Mr. Hoover is the best fitted candidate to occupy the position as President of the United States and will bring to that office a vast amount of world-wide experience and executive ability which makes him a most desirable man to be elected President.

Hoover and Curtis should carry Lawrence county by a large majority if the people of New Castle and the remainder of the county go to the polls and vote for their own best interests tomorrow.

Chest Workers Report Tonight

Expect Meeting Will Be Victory Dinner, Says Campaign Director

NEED $20,000 TO COMPLETE BUDGET

Community Chest workers today are feverishly canvassing their re-assigned territories and prospects in a last desperate attempt to raise $20,000, which they hope to report at the dinner which will take place this evening in the east dining room of The Cathedral, and they hope to bring the total for the campaign to $80,000. At present there is slightly more than $60,000 in the Chest.

For the first time this year, Voluntary Givers' Day is taking place in the parlors of The Castleton, under the co-chairmanship of Mrs. H. L. Gordon and Mrs. S. W. Perry. Ten ladies are working in the hope that people who have not yet contributed their share to the Chest will do so either by telephoning or calling on the committee at The Castleton.

Saturday evening the board of directors of the New Castle Chamber of Commerce voted their hearty support and cooperation with Mrs. Grace Phillips Johnson, who has stepped into the breach and is acting as general chairman in the absence of Robert C. Love, who was elected to the office some weeks ago.

"Tonight, if possible, we want to make it a victory dinner," declared Herbert Pearis, director of the drive this morning. "We want to have every team report, and we want every team captain to report in such amounts that the $80,000 budget will be assured.

"Last year, over $100,000 was real-

Election Officers---Please

The election of Tuesday, November 6, will be an unusual one. Hardly a person but is interested in it, and The News will undoubtedly be besieged by thousands asking for returns.

Election officers can be of vast assistance to the public if they will co-operate in getting returns to the office.

In counting the votes, won't you count the elective offices first, going through all the ballots before counting the amendment vote. While the state is interested in the amendments, yet the most interest is in the elective offices.

When you get your totals in the elective office, will you call The News at 4000 and thus assist this paper in giving to the people of the city and county the latest returns in a prompt and efficient manner.

In addition to the four telephone trunk lines into The News office, connected with No. 4000, several additional direct lines have been placed in The News for election night. These can be secured by calling No. 6000.

New York Youth, Slayer Of Girl, Is Unconcerned

Vincent Rice, 17, Slayer Of Former Sweetheart, Baffles Criminal Experts

DISPLAYS LITTLE INTEREST IN FATE

Friends Of Slayer And Victim Cannot Recount Motive For Brutal Tragedy

(International News Service)

NEW YORK, Nov. 5.—Vincent Rice, latest jazz age slayer, today presented a baffling study in criminology as he sat in a prison cell and awaited developments following his amazing confession that he strangled Alice Josst, pretty 15-year-old high school girl, because she "kissed him" over his protest and said, "Come on and be a sport."

That's the story of this good-looking, smartly-dressed "sheik" of 17.

The girl's friends don't believe it, and even the police are skeptical of that phase of the confession which deals with the motive. The rest of the confession the authorities believe, that, as young Rice said, he became angry with the girl while being entertained alone in her home, struck her with his fist and then strangled her with the cord of an electric iron.

Pleads Not Guilty.

Young Rice, cool and seemingly unconcerned, sat in his cell today in Richmond county jail, Staten Island, awaiting the next turn of the wheels of justice. He was arraigned yesterday on the charge of first degree murder, pleaded not guilty and was remanded to jail without bail pending his indictment.

He is an enigma to the police, to the flapper and youths who knew him and even to his folks. Some of the flappers of Staten Island assert that his admiration for others never equaled his admiration for himself. He took his friendship with Alice Josst quite seriously. He had a "spat" with her three weeks ago at a party because, it is said, she went into another room and smoked a cigarette in company with another boy.

Tried to Make-Up.

Young Rice didn't see Alice from that night until the day of the murder.

A girl friend of Alice's, Dorothy Davis, said she knew Alice had tried to make up the quarrel with Vincent.

Since the night of the party Vincent had taken out another girl. The police are seeking a girl seen to alight from a train in Staten Island Saturday evening, weeping violently. She held a paper in her hand and sobbed

EARLY VOTING URGED IN EVERY PRECINCT

Tuesday, November 6, will undoubtedly see the heaviest vote ever cast in the history of Lawrence county. Unless every voter cooperates in the matter of hurrying through the booth hundreds may be deprived of their vote.

It is a matter of grave concern in such wards as the second, and in such precincts as the fourth of the second ward, or in Ellwood City. With nearly 1200 votes registered and probably 95 per cent of them planning to vote, every voter must help if the entire vote is to be cast.

If the entire vote is to be cast the precinct will have to average about 100 votes for every hour in the day. This might be done in any one hour, but the early morning hours will see a lighter vote, and the afternoon and evening will see an unprecedented rush to get the ballots into the box.

Voters are urgerd to go to the polls prepared to cast their vote speedily. Take as little time as possible in the booth, for a minute or two delay upon the part of a voter may mean that several other voters will be denied the right.

It's a serious matter, not alone in the fourth precinct of the second ward, but in many other precincts. Vote fast if you want the other fellow to get in, and remember some other voter has hurried in order that you might get in.

Housewives, clerks and men on afternoon shifts in the mills are urged to cast their vote in the morning. Hardly a housewife but can cast her ballot in the early hours. Don't wait for friend husband to get home before going to the polls, for that will only add to the confusion that is bound to occur at the polls.

Be fair to the other voter. Get in and get out as fast as you can. It takes but little time to vote if you know your ballot. Study a sample ballot before you go in and thus aid in getting all the votes cast.

PRESCOTT, Ariz., Nov. 5.—The bodies of Capt. C. B. D. Collyer and Harry Tucker, who met death when their plane, Yankee Doodle, crashed into a cliff 23 miles south of here, today were transported to Prescott, where the bodies will be prepared for burial and returned to Los Angeles.

Collyer, pilot, and Tucker, owner of the plane, took off from Mines field, Los Angeles, Saturday afternoon on a projected non-stop flight to New York. It was the same plane in which Art Goebel had made his record-breaking non-stop flight from coast to coast.

Hoped for Record

The pair had announced before setting out that they hoped to beat the 19-hour record established by Goebel.

NEWS' ELECTION NIGHT SERVICE FOR PUBLIC

There is just one thing you will want to know on Tuesday night, November 6, and that is "who won?"

And in finding out who won you will want to be in constant touch with the election returns as they come in from the various precincts of the city and county, from the state and from the other states of the Union.

Realizing the intense interest in the election this year, the New Castle News has gone to more than ordinary ends to give the people of New Castle the news of the election and in making those arrangements has taken advantage of every known facility.

In addition to the four telephone trunk lines into The News office, connected with No. 4000, several additional direct lines have been placed in The News for election night. These can be secured by calling No. 6000.

The News special International News Service wire will be open all night, the radio will augment this, telephone and personal service from local precincts will be maintained, and all of this service will be given to the public just as fast as it comes in.

A huge canvas sheet will be hung on the building across the street from The News on Mercer street and returns will be bulletined on this canvas. A special annunciator service will be installed on The News building and the returns will be broadcast through this, also. Every telephone in the plant will be in use and if you want the news of the election as it comes in, come down to Mercer street and be a guest at The News party.

News' election extras will also be issued during the night as news developments warrant.

Returns will probably be slow coming in from local precincts as the vote is heavy. However there should be some indication from other states as early as eight o'clock as some states, including New York use the voting machines.

This is your invitation to attend the New Castle News' Election Night party. Returns as fast as they come in, with every known facility being used to get them to you.

In the office a corps of trained men will be busy tabulating returns, all for the convenience of the patrons of the New Castle News.

Campaign Nears Close With Both Parties Confident

Governor Smith Must Carry New York State To Be In Running

By GEORGE R. HOLMES
International News Service Staff Correspondent

NEW YORK, Nov. 5.—The most unusual and complex Presidential campaign in the political history of the country roared down the stretch to the finish today with the leaders on both sides shouting "We win!" At the same time not a few of those same leaders are secretly wondering just what is going to happen, anyway, in tomorrow's battle of the ballots.

The principals themselves, Herbert Hoover and Governor Al Smith, are confident enough, and apparently genuinely so. They have seen the madness of the crowds that flocked about them; into the ears has poured the enthusiastic acclaim of the multitudes; and their eyes have scanned the glowing reports passed up to them by their lieutenants. Being human they have been affected by what they have seen and they are confident.

Both Confident

The arrest, coming on the eve of election, caused a tremendous sensation in the Granite state.

The secretary of state was taken to the capitol at Cocord. Governor Huntley M. Spaulding went from his Rochester home to his office in the state house to formally receive the resignation of Secretary Pillsbury.

The warrant was issued by Attorney Jeremy R. Laldron and the county solicitor.

Meet Von Hindenburg

Later the crew of the Graf Zeppelin and the three United naval officers who crossed in the airship were received in audience today by President Von Hindenburg who expressed the hope that such flights would bring Germany in closer friendship with faraway countries.

After shaking hands with his visitors the President said:

"I want to express my esteem and admiration for your national deed and the manner in which the Zeppelin defied storms and fog. Your wonderful reception in America, for which we are most grateful, shows that the Zeppeline is admirably suited to bring nations, which are now separated by seas, closer together."

Turning to the three United States naval officers President Von Hindenburg said:

"I hope this will further cement our friendship."

The three Americans are Commander R. M. Pierce, executive officer of the Lakehurst , N. J., naval station; Lieut. Charles C. Bauch, watch officer of the Los Angeles; and Lieut. T. G. W. Settle, engineer officer of the Los Angeles.

The Graf was moored to Staaken mast after an hour's effort, following a flight over the gaily decorated city while crowds in the streets cheered and waved hats and handkerchiefs.

PLAN BURIAL OF COLLYER-TUCKER, KILLED IN CRASH

of Prescott. He said that at eight o'clock Saturday night a plane was heard circling in the vicinity, apparently in difficulty with its motor.

A searching party went out from the mine at dawn Sunday. Five miles off the road leading to the mine, according to Parr's report, they found the wrecked plane and two bodies. The spot was in a rugged ravine and difficult to reach.

Bodies Identified

Later a second party went out and one of the men managed to reach the bodies. He identified them as Collyer and Tucker from papers found in their clothes.

The plane was torn to pieces, as if it had struck the canyon wall with tremendous force and then an explosion, perhaps of gasoline, had splintered the wreckage. A piece of the fuselage bearing part of the name "Yankee Doodle" was reported found.

A storm was raging Saturday night when the tragedy is believed to have occurred. The Bradshaw mountains, against one of which the plane crashed, have been a constant menace to trans-continental fliers. They once forced Art Goebel down in the Yankee Doodle when he was trying for a non-stop record.

It is believed Collyer lost his way and was blinded by rain and fog. He ranked as one of the most skilled and daring birdmen in this country. His most notable achievement was his recent remarkable race round the world by ship and plane.

Fiancee Prostrated

New York, Nov. 5.—Miss Eleanor Waddell, 23, was prostrated today at her home in Great Neck by the death of her fiance, Capt. Charles Collyer, in the crash of the plane Yankee Doodle in Arizona.

Miss Waddell was among the hundreds of persons who gathered at Roosevelt field yesterday to welcome Collyer and his companion, Harry Tucker.

A telegram arrived for Miss Waddell from her father, Donald W. Waddell, who was in Los Angeles. It read:

"Plane crashed in Arizona last night. Charlie and Tucker killed."

Miss Waddell's face blanched. She handed the telegram to Sally Tucker, sister of the plane's owner. Both girls left immediately for their homes, where they were in a state of collapse today.

Final Appearance Tonight.

From his Palo Alto home tonight Hoover will deliver his final campaign appeal over a coast-to-coast radio hook-up.

Despite the hurried schedule mapped for the "victory special" Hoover yielded to the plea of California friends for additional stops in the state and added Sacramento, Lodi and Stockton to the list of places slated for platform greetings and informal talks.

The broadcast will begin at 6:45 p. m., Pacific time. Hoover is expected to confine himself to an appeal to the voters to exercise their franchise. He has declared the campaign definitely closed, so far as his own contribution is concerned by his St. Louis speech last Friday, and his final advocacy of Republican protection and prosperity at Pueblo, Colo., Saturday night.

An unqualified claim to a minimum of 300 electoral votes for Hoover and his running mate, Senator Charles Curtis of Kansas, was the final summary of the Republican managers aboard the Hoover train as it neared the journey's end.

NEW YORK YOUTH, SLAYER OF GIRL, IS UNCONCERNED

to a girl who met her: "I don't think Vincent could have done such a thing."

Respected Girl.

Associates of Vincent and Alice said Vincent had told how he respected Alice and hoped some day to marry her.

An autopsy on the body of the girl, performed by Dr. George Mord, an assistant medical examiner, failed to tell whether the girl had been the victim of attack. It proved merely that she had died of strangulation, that the blow she suffered on the left temple was not sufficient to cause death.

Rice denies he attacked her. In his signed statement he said: "I solemnly declare that I have never had any relationship with any female. I am not so inclined."

To Bury Girl Tuesday.

Throughout his arraignment Rice was nonchalant. On his way to jail he requested that the newspapers be sent to him so he could read the football scores.

The slain girl, meanwhile, lay in a white casket in her rather humble home, groups of neighbors consoling her widowed mother. Burial will be tomorrow morning in St. Mary's cemetery, West New Brighton, Staten Island, following services in St. Mary's church, Port Richmond.

When he appeared before Mayor William H. Gillespie he was assessed a fine of $25, with the alternative of spending 25 days in the county jail. He was still in the city jail early this afternoon.

A call was received about four o'clock this morning from the Point service station, corner of North Liberty street and Mahoning avenue, to the effect that a man had severely beaten his wife.

When Officers Criswell and Dukes arrived on the scene they found Bozol, who stated that his wife and children were missing from home and he did not know where to find them. He and the officers went to the Bozol home on Ashland avenue and there a daughter told of the mother being beaten and in the New Castle hospital.

Bozol was arrested and taken to the hospital, where his wife repeated the charge that he had beaten her.

FOR PRESIDENT
HERBERT C. HOOVER, of California

FOR VICE PRESIDENT
CHARLES CURTIS, of Kansas

AND NOW YOU WILL ELECT A PRESIDENT

PROBABLY every person reading these lines has definitely determined for whom he will vote on Tuesday. Governor Smith, by thrusting the liquor question into the campaign over the head of his own party convention, has split political lines. He has hazarded his future upon the toss of the dice. He has played for the support of masses in the populous cities by offering them a deceptive proposition, and by so doing has apparently alienated a great vote in the country districts. He has aroused fierce opposition in the South within the ranks of his own party.

Prohibition is really a false issue. But aside from it Mr. Smith has little upon which to base his appeal for support. He offers nothing on the tariff except a promise not to harm business. For the farmer he proposes a commission. The citizen who is able to rid himself of the mythical beer mug and the religious aspect of the situation is in a position to estimate truly what is actually at stake, and that is the prosperity of the nation, asserts the Philadelphia Inquirer.

The two candidates are far apart in their fitness for the presidency. One, schooled and nurtured by Tammany, has been confined to the local affairs of a single state. The other has intimate knowledge of every great public problem, national and international, gained through years of personal sacrifice.

Although you citizens generally may not be influenced one way or the other at this late hour, yet this eve of election day is an excellent time for you to give a final serious consideration to the campaign. We are going to invite for Associate Justice of the Supreme Court Charles E. Hughes to do a little talking to you. Here is what he says:

"It is a tribute to the success of our institutions that the American people, despite the confusion of our politics, have a deep-seated respect for the office of president * * * They desire the one whom they elect to be worthy of that high place, not only in ability, but in poise and self-restraint. * * * I think that they desire to select one who, under the great burden of responsibilities and despite the strain of emergencies, will uphold the dignity of his office and maintain its prestige before the country and the world.

"Some things stand out in this campaign like a lighthouse in a fog. One is the superior qualifications of the Republican candidate, Herbert Hoover. He has been known to the people as a man of the highest ability, with a remarkable range of experience. His wide knowledge, his extraordinary achievements as an administrator and his talent for leadership are recognized.

"But in addition to that, the people know Herbert Hoover even better and respect him ever more highly because of his honorable bearing during this strenuous campaign. He has not indulged in cheap ridicule of distinguished public service. He has not resorted to depreciation, misstatement, misrepresentation or diatribe. He has discussed the issues and stated his principles.

"One turns from the hearing and reading of his speeches with a heightened appreciation of his mental and moral worth. When Herbert Hoover is elected president he will so conduct himself as not only to preserve but to enhance respect for our country.

"I regret that the campaign of the Democratic candidate cannot receive a like commendation. It seems to me that he has stooped too low to conquer * * * The whole tone of Governor Smith's campaign has been far below what the country had a right to expect."

Mr. Hughes says he has been much entertained by arguments which have been used "in the attempt to lift Governor Smith into the same class with Mr. Hoover. * * * It is nothing against Governor Smith as a citizen or as a New Yorker that he has had little or no occasion to study the problems of our national life. In the range of his activities as governor he has hardly touched the important difficulties which he would have to face as president. I do not think he knows much about them."

Here is an estimate of the candidates by one whose opinions ought to carry weight. Mr. Hughes has been friendly with Governor Smith as a man and as the executive at Albany, but when it comes to the presidency he finds a great difference between the qualifications of the two. For while "Governor Smith knows New York, Mr. Hoover knows the United States and the world."

One more quotation from Mr. Hughes, and, voters, we leave the result with you:

"How is Governor Smith to be a leader of opinion in relation to national problems of which he has had opportunity to learn little or nothing? How is he to be a leader of opinion on our economic problems? He will have to be content with what he is told, with being able to bring a sound critical faculty, nurtured by study and experience, to the examination of these problems. This may suit many who will not understand the difference. But it is not the leadership to which the country is entitled. Why should we be content with it, if we can have a better leadership?

"Mr. Hoover is a skilful navigator. He knows his charts and is acquainted with the seas he will have to sail. Let us put him in charge of the Ship of State."

A man can do without any trouble, but he can't do much.

Ordinary itch is only skin deep, but an itch for office goes to the marrow of the bones.

Married in error, says a headline. That is often the case, but it is not learned soon enough.

Today

Last Days of a Big Fight.
Zeppelins Won't Do.
To Abolish Poverty.
Gov. Smith on Eugenics.

By ARTHUR G. BRISBANE
(Copyright, 1928, by N. Y. American, Inc.)

Great demonstration for Gov. Smith in New York on his homecoming from the west Friday. All demonstrations for trans-Atlantic fliers, Channel swimmers and others eclipsed.

And the demonstration tonight at Madison Square Garden will be even greater.

Herbert Hoover starts west confident that the people of the United States will vote "to continue prosperity."

The statement occasionally published in this column that the Zeppelin is not the type for ocean travel is confirmed by Dr. Eckener, commander of the giant "Grag Zeppelin."

He admits that at one time in his return trip in a 90-mile gale over Newfoundland the big dirigible risked being torn in two.

He is "through with tne present craft as a commercial liner" and plans for a more powerful craft.

The successful "mightier craft" will not be huge gas bags buffeted by the winds. No amount of power attached to such a Zep could make it safe.

Teh all-metal dirigible, made of duralumin, origanally planned at Henry Ford's factory in Detroit and now under construction by the United States may provide safety through rigidity up to a certain size.

But the heavier-than-air plane will solve the flying problem.

Herbert Hoover expresses the hope of engineering science when congratulating 20,000 citizens of Maryland on our national prosperity he says of poverty, "We now hope that its abolishment so far as the United States is concerned is among the pssibilities of the future."

Mr. Hoover speaks with conservation in a country that with proper production and distribution could easily provide ten times what the present population requires.

Cannibalism has been abolished that took thousands of centuries. Slavery has been abolished; that took thousands of years.

Poverty will be abolished and that will be the BEGINNING of civilization.

The real problem is to abolish ignorance, superstition and selfishness. That task will take a million years. Fortulately, the human race has many millions of years ahead of it. It is in its infancy now, only 12,000 years from the late stone age.

In the magazine "Eugenics" official organ of the American Eugenics society organized to encourage the production of better children Gov. Smith is quoted as follows:

"Health of bodily and moral fiber, decency, loyalty and sympathy must exist in ideal parents and these qualities are usually present in the parents of those men and women whose development from however humble origins seems to belie the laws of heredity."

Physical health, in mothers especially is important, since the child takes its physical body directly from the mother. Lincoln's mother was a powerful woman nearly six feet tall. Charlemagne's mother, whom Villon in his "News of Yester Year" poem calls "Berthe aux Grands Pieds" ("Bertha of the Big Feet"), was the powerful mother of a powerful son.

But there is no rule that holds always.

The "moral" rule that Governor Smith lays down is sometimes missing. Leonardo, the greatest of artists with one exception was the son of a poor peasant woman whom his father never married.

And William the Conqueror's mother was the daughter of a poor tanner busy washing clothes in a brook when the Duke of Normandy first saw her.

He married her afterwards.

The most important thing appears to be, first a well developed brain; nothing can take the place of that. You cannot get genius from an inhabitant of the Congo in ten thousand generations.

Next to intelligence which is inherited, comes the affection of parents and especially the mother's respect for the father.

Cougratulations to Secretary of War Davis on an interesting military experiment.

From an army airplane one parachute carried down the crew of a machine gun. Another parachute, launched a few seconds later brought down a gun and ammunition. The gun chew located the gun and within three minutes were operatng its.

That may not be important in real war. Any airplane could drop explosives and poison gas that would hurt an enemy on the ground more than 1,000 machine guns. But every airplane experiment is important.

Jim an' Bill drove up th' hill.
Leavin' safety far behind 'em;
Jim came down with a busted crown
An' Bill—they never did find 'im.

Hints and Dints

Sun sets tonight 4:53. Sun rises tomorrow 6:36.

Tomorrow is the great day the whole world has been waiting for. You are a part in that great election, so use your head. The result of the election tomorrow will mean a lot to the United States and the world for that matter.

We would just as soon eat dog and cat as bear and rabbit so you will not see us out in the open spaces trying to shoot any of them or hitting a human because he looks like a ground hog.

THIS IS VERY GOOD

November 1st, 1928.

Dear Hints and Dints:

This may be of interest to you and is a true occurrence in my family. Daddy was describing the process of milking a cow. In the midst of his discussion he made the statement: "You must know when to stop milking a cow." Junior, aged six, sitting next to him, said: "Uh-huh, when the pail's full."

Respectfully,

Well, we had a great Hallowe'en parade during the presidential campaign anyhow.

Ellwood City had a great Republican rally Saturday night. Ellwood City has another one on us. Leave it to Ellwood City men and women to put their city on the map. That rally ought to be good for at least a county commissioner at the next election.

It is getting so the country people do not have to go to the city to see the sights. They can just stay at home and the sights go by their places in automobiles.

Before marriage, she thinks he has the biggest heart in the world, but the honeymoon takes a nosedive when she discovers how much bigger his stomach is than his heart.

The polls will open at seven o'clock tomorrow morning and close at seven o'clock tomorrow evening. You will have to vote between those two hours. Hundreds of others will also have to vote during that time. Some will be only able to go to the polls at certain times of the day. Those who go the first thing in the morning will be able to vote quickly and satisfactorily. Do not wait until late in the day because there is going to be a crowd then that will keep some from voting at all.

If you do nothing else tomorrow—vote as every American should do.

FLIGHT

Think her not beneath earth's clay floor;
Her soul would fly to Heaven's door.

I say Death's breath did take her swift,
As mighty winds a leaf would lift.

To toss her high in spaceless flight,
Close to the Source of Endless Light.

As gems reflect a brilliant beam
So will Life's purest essence gleam.

Dry binding tears, calm vain lament,
Spirit glows in the firmament.

She is no wanderer afar.
God's welcoming another star.

Authorities at Harrisburg are becoming alarmed at the increasing number of deaths caused by automobiles on Sundays. Last Sunday, a week ago yesterday, there were sixteen deaths and about fifty people injured on the highways of the commonwealth. Be more careful in giving licenses to half baked louts who whiz over the roads, might help some.

There isn't another holiday until Thanksgiving and that's plenty soon enough.

Dear Hints and Dints: The stillness was so still in our little living room last evening you could have heard a gumdrop. Hubby was deep into the "Adventures of Sherlock Holmes." Son was absorbed in a text book on mechanical drawing. I was with Stanley fighting the lions, tigers and things in the African jungles; when the quiet was suddenly shattered to fragments by a piercing scream! I jumped three feet high and came down on the cat's tail. Wow, how it howled! Hubby spun around on the end of his spine, and said: "What the hell has happened!" Son dropped his book and asked: "For heaven's sake, mother, are you having a fit?"

"No," I replied, "but that darn cat must have thought I had a wooden leg, and he was trying to sharpen his claws on it!"

I put the cat out and peace was restored.

The World AND THE Mud Puddles

SOMETHING SOOTHING.

Automobilists are always looking for something new. A British Automobile Company displayed something new at the London Motor Show held in October. It is an automatic gear shift.

The gears of the automatic shift are what is known as the "always in mesh" type (instead of the sliding gear) and are operated by a mechanical finger controlled from a lever or pointer on a dial placed in the center of the steering wheel. There is no gear lever. The gear positions are marked on the dial on the steering wheel, by the names of "Reverse," "Neutral," "Low," "Medium," "Normal" and "High."

To start the car the pointer is moved on the dial to "Low," after which a pedal, placed in the position of the "Normal" clutch pedal, is depressed, and the car starts. To accelerate, the pointer is moved up to "Medium" and the pedal depressed again, the automatic gear shift coming into operation immediately, and so on for the "Normal" and "High" speeds, as well as for the "Reverse" gear. The automatic gear-changing device does not come into operation until the pedal is actually depressed. Thus, ahe next gear to be used can be selected in advance and the pedal depressed only at the time when it is desired to change the gear.

A principal feature of the self-changing gear box is said to be its silence. Except for the variation in engine note due to its change in speed the engine is silent ,and it is necessary for the driver to refer to the dial to know what gear he is using, since there is no definite sound to the engine to indicate the different gears as in the case in the present ordinary type of car.

The "Early Elizatethan" car made in Michigan will think this over.

All Friends Of Romance Mourn Passing Of Graustark's Creator

George Barr McCutcheon Held His Place With Lovers Of Sheer Fiction In Age Of Growing Realism

Friends of romance everywhere mourn the passing of George Barr McCutcheon, creator of Graustark and for more than a quarter of a century supreme in his own realm of sheer fiction.

"The kingdom of Graustark sits in sorrow, for its author is gone. And Graustark does not grieve alone," says the ATLANTA JOURNAL, which adds that "imperturbably he remained the oracle of true romance, and his creations were woven of a sheer fabric obtainable nowhere save in the whimsical enchantments of his mind." The Journal predicts that "after the world's monarchies have fallen in dust, Graustark will remain, imperishable in its bright romantic air."

"The glamor of royalty clung to those volumes, and America still loves its royalty," declares the WICHITA BEACON, while the LITTLE ROCK ARKANSAS DEMOCRAT believes that "every reader was a vicarious fine American marrying a lovely princess or a beautiful girl eloping with a prince." Pointing to the pleasure and joy that many have found in reading his books, the ROCK ISLAND ARGUS concludes that "he has succeeded in life who takes others out of themselves and fixes their interest upon some stirring creation of fiction."

"People do like to picture life as a glorious contest between beautiful gods, in which there can be much tensity at the right moments, but in which nothing can go wrong and nobody get really hurt," states the DES MOINES TRIBUNE-CAPITAL, and because of this interest, the NEW ORLEANS MORNING TRIBUNE suggests that "even today, when the books have lost their vogue, many readers seem to believe, even if vaguely, that Graustark, with all its spies and intrigues and beautiful princesses, still exists."

"Everything he wrote had something of the lilt of blithe courage in it, and that is good enough for millions of us," in the opinion of the OMAHA WORLD-HERALD, which feels, while "he's gone now, and maybe he will be forgotten in 10 or 25 years," that he "served his time well." The action and romance in his stories also are attested by the HOUSTON CHRONICLE, which remarks that "he correctly interpreted the social life of America during the period when Roosevelt was president and set the fashion for the country"; that McCutcheon "wrote romantically for a public to whom life was a great adventure."

"He was always mindful," according to the WASHINGTON STAR, "of the fact that the majority of readers prefer decent matter in their books, and he gave it to them, with conscientious labor to make his stories effective and to invest his characters with the semblance of actuality. He was an expert craftsman and he well deserved his great success." The PASADENA STAR-NEWS holds that literature loses a shining light in his death."

"With the present school of realism in novel writing," says the ROANOKE WORLD-NEWS, McCutcheon had no part. His gift was rather to interest and amuse by romantic fancies than to shake one's beliefs by the stating of complex problems. The BOSTON TRANSCRIPT offers the tribute: "Mr. McCutcheon was a clever literary artificer, fully to be credited with an easy fancy and an attractive style developed from active newspaper writing. He deserved the popular success which his writings brought."

"The author of these popular stories," observes the NEW YORK EVENING WORLD, "was one of the kindliest, most healthy minded and genial of men. Without pose, patient of other's enthusiasms, possessed of an unfailing humor and good nature—his generation knew no better host and companion." The ALBANY EVENING NEWS adds that "Americans to whom his writings have meant real enjoyment will remember him long and regret his death."

Viewing him as one of a group of romantic writers, the FORT WORTH RECORD-TELEGRAM comments: "They also serve who tell clean stories entertainingly and wholesomely. The man who has just passed was given the right to know that no book of his ever pointed the wrong direction to warped minds." The FLINT DAILY JOURNAL also notes that "he produced realism but he did not do it with the aid of debased and degenerate characters." The CLEVELAND PLAIN DEALER suggests: "If they are not the books that a wise father would recommend to his son, they are books, nevertheless, which few fathers would cross off a son's reading list. For most fathers have read some of them and many fathers most of them, and with real pleasure."

"One of the country's foremost novelists and one of Indiana's contributions to American letters," is the appraisal of the BELLINGHAM HERALD, which records further as to his career: "He was a member of a distinguished family, for his brother, John T. McCutcheon, is equally well known, particularly through his work as cartoonist, though he is a writer of ability also. Most readers remember George Barr McCutcheon's earlier novels as perhaps his most popular works. * * * Throughout his career he maintained a romantic manner of writing, and his audiene, which never failed him, will note his passing with a sense of real loss."

Citing the small price that the author received for his first story, the PITTSBURGH POST-GAZETTE recalls that "he was also to make better bargains by far for all the 39 other titles in his long list; magazine stories from his pen sold for better prices than the novel which brought him international fame. Samuel Johnson claimed that he sold 'The Vicar of Wakefield' for Oliver Goldsmith for 60 pounds. Ever since then the inadequacy of early literary rewards has been cited. The McCutcheon experience shows that the modern who can ring the bell with consistency will not lack success which would flatter a captain of industry."

SOME GOOD FRENCH PROVERBS

Absolute liberty for everybody would be absolute autocracy for the strongest. Order has limits, disorder has no limits.

Places die as well as men.

The worst thing about error is not that it is untrue, but that it is blind, passionate and egotistic.

When you act, observe the rules; when you pass judgment, observe the exceptions.

If virtue makes good manners, good manners also make virtue.

Good taste is an essential part of good morals.

The attention of the listener in a conversation is like the accompaniment in music.

Every mind should keep a "spare room." It is intolerable to discuss with a mind every room of which is taken. Hospitality is the charm of intelligence.

Where one is not understood one is always confused. We cannot pleasantly discuss with anyone who is not already half of our opinion.

We should pride ourselves on our sincerity, not on our infallibility.

People are persuaded by their own reasons, not by yours.

It is not another's opinion that displeases you, but his disposition to make you adopt it.

Nothing does a woman so much honor as her patience; and nothing does her so little honor as the patience of her husband.

The wish to be under no obligation to anyone is the subtlest form of egotism.

The heart should go before the find, and tolerance should always march before truth.

Those who are busy making themselves loved have no time to make themselves unhappy.

It is our impotences that irritate us, never our powers.

It is a man's petty pleasures that make him petty.

Questions mark the force of the mind; answers mark its skill.

Two classes of people are equally charming and equally needed; those who do and say beautiful things, and those who appreciate them.

The body shows the species; only the face shows the personality.

The Little Visit.

That easy chair he occupied,
Beside the table there he stood.
That picture on the wall he spied
And called it rather good.

There is a book upon the shelf
He lingered for a time,
I'd always kept it to myself,
But now he's woven in the rhyme.

Oh, much is different since he came
And made his little visit here.
A dozen things recall his name.
He asked to have that ash tray near.

And now, although he's gone away,
I often see him smiling there,
And to friends who come I say:
"That book he loved" or "that's his chair."

'Twas just a brief, glad visit made
In earlier and happy days.
But here where once he paused and played
His spirit still in memory stays.

Give More Tests To New Fire Truck

Booster Tank On Apparatus Is Tested By Fire Chief This Morning

One of the most satisfactory tests yet to be run on the new Pirsch fire apparatus, now at the Central Fire station on South Jefferson street took place this morning under the direction of Fire Chief Charles H. Lynn and a representative from the Pirsch factory.

"We are now getting reports on the truck ready to be submitted to the city for action," stated the fire chief immediately after the conclusion of the test. "The apparatus is one of the best pumpers that I have ever seen and I am sure that after the road test this afternoon, it will be acceptable for the approval of the city.

"The work of the booster tank on the new truck is particularly pleasing to me," Chief Lynn concluded. "This tank will give a fifty pound nozzle pressure, with a half inch nozzle, and also gives a flow of 14 gallons a minute."

The road test of the truck will take place sometime late this afternoon.

Republicans To Retain Control In Next Senate

Republican Forces See Way Clear to Retain Nominal Power In Next Congress

THREE STATES TO DECIDE ISSUES

By WILLIAM K. HUTCHINSON
International News Service Staff Correspondent

NEW YORK, Nov. 5.—The Republican party will retain a nominal control of the United States senate in the next congress even if a majority of the Democratic claims are upheld by the electorate, analysis showed today.

The Democrats have claimed but 19 sure victories in the 35 senatorial contests being decided Tuesday. With but 26 "holdover" senators of their faith left in the senate, their claims could be fulfilled and yet leave the senate in the control of their political rivals. The Democratic chance to win control however, will rest upon success in three states, where they expect "probable victories" and in three others, termed 'doubtful."

Boast Of Gain

The Republicans meanwhile boast they will gain 8 seats in the next senate by re-electing fourteen of their own members and putting Republicans in the places of eight Democrats seeking re-election. If they succeed in this task, the Republicans would have 59 members in the next senate. They might even have more as they expect "probable victories" in three additional states while the result is termed "doubtful" in four others.

The Republicans claim:

Certain victories: in California, Connecticut, Idaho, Illinois, Indiana, Maine, Michigan, Nebraska, New Mexico, North Dakota, Ohio, Pennsylvania, Vermont and Wisconsin where Republicans are now seated and in Maryland, Nevada, New Jersey, New York, Ohio, Rhode Island, Washington and West Virginia, where Democrats hold forth. (Ohio elects two senators) total 22.

Probable victories: in Arizona, Delaware and Utah. Total 3.

Outcome doubtful: in Massachusetts, Missouri, Montana and Wyoming. Total 4.

Contest conceded: in Florida, Mississippi, Tennessee, Texas and Virginia, to Democrats in solid south, and in Minnesota to Shipstead, farmer-laborite. Total 6.

The Democrats claim:

Sure victories: in Arizona, Delaware, Florida, Maryland, Massachusetts, Mississippi, Missouri, Montana, Nevada, New Jersey, New York, Rhode Island, Tennessee, Texas, Utah, Virginia, Washington, West Virginia and Wyoming, all seats now held by Democrats. Total 19.

Probable victories: in Indiana, Illinois and New Mexico, for seats now held by Republicans. Total 3.

Outcome doubtful: in Connecticu and Ohio (2 seats) total 3.

Contest conceded: in California Idaho, Maine, Michigan, Nebraska North Dakota, Pennsylvania, Vermont and Wisconsin to Republicans, and in Minnesota to Shipstead, farmer-laborite, total 10.

A THREE DAYS' COUGH IS YOUR DANGER SIGNAL

Coughs from colds may lead to serious trouble. You can stop them now with Creomulsion, an emulsified creosote that is pleasant to take. Creomulsion is a medical discovery with two-fold action; it soothes and heals the inflamed membranes and inhibits germ growth.

Of all known drugs creosote is recognized by high medical authorities as one of the greatest healing agencies for coughs from colds and bronchial irritations. Creomulsion contains, in addition to creosote, other healing elements which soothe and heal the inflamed membranes and stop the irritation, while the creosote goes on to the stomach, is absorbed into the blood, attacks the seat of the trouble and checks the growth of the germs.

Creomulsion is guaranteed satisfactory in the treatment of coughs from colds, bronchitis and minor forms of bronchial irritations, and is excellent for building up the system after colds or flu. Money refunded if not relieved after taking according to directions. Ask your druggist. (adv.)

PETER'S ADVENTURES in ANIMAL LAND

BY MRS. FLORENCE SMITH VINCENT

A TERRIFYING ATTACK.

"Golden-Collar had lived in his new home quite a long time before he knew where he was. To tell the truth he didn't care very much, he was enjoying life so well. But one day while he was quietly fishing he heard shouts and looking quickly about saw a bird speeding towards him its wings spread. And after the bird a crowd of Two-Legs, screeching and waving their arms.

"'Good gracious what can the matter be!' exclaimed Golden-Collar. 'Why in the world doesn't that bird take to his wings instead of using them as sails? The poor fellow must be frightened to death or he would think of it.

"'There I do believe he is going to rise now. Why, the poor thing can't! So that is what's the trouble one of his wings is injured. Oh! They almost got their victim that time. Why, where on earth did he go to? Thank goodness the Two-Legs have lost him. Horrid things! How wild they look and what a noise they are making. Next thing I know they will be chasing me. I had better hide before they catch sight of me.'

"But it was too late. With a whoop and a yell the Two-Legs were hot on Golden-Colar's trail. How fast they could run. And what were they throwing at him?

"Curious as he was Golden-Collar dared to linger no longer. It would make little difference to him if he found out what the weapons were if he lost his life in doing so. One had whizzed right around his head; it hadn't touched him but it had made his feathers stand up with fear. Such a queer looking weapon it was too. Shaped something like a half moon. As he watched it Golden Collar hardly believing his own eyes had seen the thing fly right straight back into the hands of the Two-Legs who had thrown it.

"'Whizzzz!' It was coming toward the startled bird again. Golden Collar spread his wings and rose as high into the clouds as they would carry him.

"THE BOOMERANG FLEW BACK INTO THE HANDS OF THE TWO-LEGS"

"Down below him the Two-Legs cheated of two victims at once ran hither and thither and shouted angry words at each other.

"What funny fat creatures these Two-Legs were! Golden-Collar had seen but a few Two-Legs in his life and never any like them. Their hair, matted, hung down over their eyes and they wore no clothes at all that he could see. And when they talked they sounded like a lot of angry animals growling at each other."

Governor Fisher Still Confident On His Figures

Says Hoover Will Carry Pennsylvania By Million Majority

(Copyright 1928 by International News Service)

INDIANA, Pa., Nov. 5.—Characterizing the claim of John R. Collins, Democratic state chairman, that Gov. Al Smith will carry Pennsylvania by 150,000 to 165,000 votes as "the wail of a fellow who knows he's licked," Governor John S. Fisher took up the cudgels for Herbert Hoover in a last minute campaign statement to International News Service this afternoon.

"You may say for me that Collins is 1,200,000 votes off his base," the governor said at his home.

"We will watch with interest the returns from Collins' own county. We'll see how much he is snowed under in Potter county." (Collin's home is in Coudersport, Pa.)

"I am still confident that the mark we set—a million majority for Hoover—will be realized."

The governor will vote early in Indiana, and then leave by motor for Harrisburg, where he will reveive the election returns at the governor's mansion.

Two Face Charges Before Aldermen

One Is Drunken Driver, The Other Has Liquor In His Possession

Police were called to a railroad crossing in the vicinity of the Pennsylvania Engineering Works last night to investigate a wreck there. They found that a car had been driven up over the sidewalk and a wheel broken off. The owner disappeared.

The car was ordered into a garage. When the wrecker arrived, the owner also appeared and refused to allow his car to be taken. He was evidently under the influence of liquor. The police were notified and Officer Thompson and Constable Sharp Leslie arrested him. He gave the name of Joseph Mamajek.

He admitted driving the car and when he was found to be under the influence of liquor, was held on a charge of driving a motor vehicle while intoxicated. This morning he was taken before Alderman O. H. P. Green and the charge made against him by Chief of Police C. C. Horner. In default of bail he is in the county jail awaiting a hearing.

Carl Scialdone, 28 Center street, was arrested last night by Acting Lieutenant of Police M. J. Young and Officers John Young, Moore and Flinner when they found a quantity of liquor in his place. A visitor in the place was also arrested and paid a fine of $10. This morning Scialdone was taken before Alderman Walter T. Hamilton and charged with selling and possessing liquor by Chief of Police C. C. Horner. In default of bail he is in the county jail awaiting a hearing.

Smith's Name On Election Ballots Twenty-One Times

(International News Service)

NEW YORK, Nov. 5.—When Gov. Smith steps into the polling place tomorrow to cast his vote it will mark the 21st time he has seen his own name on the New York county ticket.

For 12 years his name was on the ticket as candidate for the assembly from New York county. His other candidacies were for sheriff, president of the board of aldermen and governor of the state.

Only once in that long span of years has he been defeated, his single defeat in a score of times in the past was in 1920 when as a candidate for governor he went down in the Harding landslide although running nearly a million votes ahead of his ticket.

ENGLAND'S NEWEST "WAR BIRD"

CAMPAIGN NEARS CLOSE WITH BOTH PARTIES CONFIDENT

Coast, informs his associates that he does not doubt the correctness of their reports of victory tomorrow.

Chairman Raskob claims 402 electoral votes for Governor Smith.

Senator George H. Moses, Eastern director of the Hoover campaign, claims 409 electoral votes for Hoover.

To most observers and to the leaders on both sides these 400-claims are equally ridiculous, they can be justified by nothing except the political habit of campaign managers on the eve of an election to claim everything in sight, and thus promote "the victory complex."

Both sides can find reasons aplenty for confidence, but not by such figures as the rival chairmen have evolved with their pencils and tables.

Puzzling Elements

The surface indications, that is, straw votes, betting odds and newspaper "experting," all indicate a Hoover victory. Yet there are puzzling elements and baffling cross-currents present in this election that have never entered into any previous election in American history and exactly what they portend only tomorrow can tell. Generally they can be grouped under three headings:

1—The presence for the first time of an acute religious controversy in the election of an American president.

2—The presence for the first time of an acute controversy over prohibition in a national election.

3—A new army of approximately 10,000,000 voters added to the nearly 30,000,000 that participated in the 1924 election.

To the forecaster who can accurately analyze the actual ballot strength contained in this trio of new elements tomorrow's election is an open book. But to most observers, trying to chart their course by old, tried and familiar landmarks, they present a composite conundrum that can only be solved tomorrow night by the counting of some 40,000,000 votes.

See Hoover Victory

A majority of the newspaper experts have selected Hoover to win. It is usually "safe" to predict Republican victory in national elections. There are normally five million more Republicans than Democrats in this country. To which the Democrats retort that this is no normal year. The Democrats liken it to 1916, another year in which the experts predicted Republican victory—only to wake up two days later to find a Democrat elected.

Perhaps 1928 may be another 1916. Perhaps it won't. But it is going to take a poll of the religious prejudices, if any, and the wet-and-dry views of some forty million American citizens to determine whether there it is or not.

Both sides can dip into the electoral college figure box and produce tables of certainties, probabilities and extra and ultra-probabilities that are extremely satisfactory to them. Figures cannot lie but they can be marvelously juggled.

The Republican tabulators can produce tables in a twinkling showing that a Hoover victory is as certain and inescapable as death and taxes; conversely, their Democratic brethern can take the same figures and demonstrate that a Smith victory is inevitable and that a landslide is probable.

Several Key States

When all the extravagant claims are thrown out, the difference of opinion between the tabulators is found to focus on a considerable group of states, scattered from Massachusetts to the wheat belt of the West.

There are four states that are regarded by the leaders on both sides as more or less "key" states, for want of a better term. These are New York, Massachusetts, Missouri and Wisconsin. If Governor Smith carries this quartette—and he is conceded an excellent chance of doing it—it means a close election.

The electoral votes of these four states total 94, an important figure in itself. But what is considered more important in the final analysis is that each of these states is representative of the territory in which it is located, so that immediately adjacent states might be calculated to follow the same trend.

In the East, Rhode Island and Connecticut usually are found in the same column with Massachusetts after election. New York and New Jersey of the Middle Atlantic states usually go along together. Missouri is typical of the always important border states, with its mixture of Northern and Southern influences; while Wisconsin is the focal point of political unrest whose influences does, on occasion, penetrate up through Minnesota and the two Dakotas, and into Montana.

Must Carry New York

There is common agreement that Governor Smith's chances are all wrapped up in his own New York. Even the most extravagant Democratic optimist cannot envision a Smith victory without New York. Hence the unprecedented efforts of both sides to capture the Empire State. More money and more oratory have flowed in New York in this election than in any other election in history. The betting odds today were 6 to 5 that Smith would carry it without much Republican money in evidence.

Governor Smith himself is so satisfied with conditions in his own state that instead of making his final election appeal at home, he chose today instead to direct it to the Mid-Western grain belt, where the fires of Republican discord have been kindled. Some of these states he must carry to be elected. He broadcast today a special message to the agriculturists of the Mississippi Valley. This is to be followed tonight by a general broadcast to the country as a whole.

Secretary Hoover, the first presidential candidate in history ever to wind up a campaign on the Pacific Coast, will also get on the air tonight with an appeal to the electorate to do its duty at the polls tomorrow. Hoover's appeal, it was said, will not be a partisan campaign speech, but rather an admonition to election day golfers and vacationists to fulfill their civic duties before or after their play.

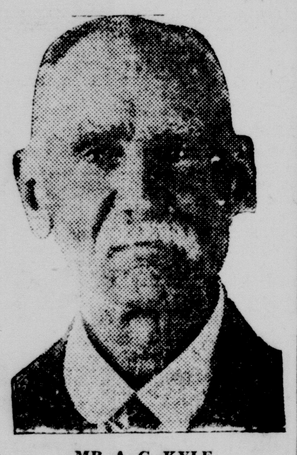
"IS PLEASURE TO ENDORSE KONJOLA; IT IS WONDERFUL

Well Known Farmer Declares His First And Only Relief Came From This New Medicine.



MR. A. G. KYLE

New fame and friends are being won daily by the new medicine, Konjola, as the news of many remarkable recoveries wrought by this master compound is spread about by those who have found new and splendid health in Konjola, when all other medicines and treatments had failed. Indeed, it seems that this master medicine is at its best in these stubborn cases. Just how Konjola achieves these astounding successes is being explained by the Konjola Man, who is at the Love & Megown drug store, 204 Washington street, this city. Here seekers after health will learn what this super-remedy has meant to thousands whom Konjola has made well again. Among these is Mr. A. G. Kyle, farmer, R. R. No. 4, Volant, near New Castle. Rejoicing in newly found health, Mr. Kyle said to the Konjola Man:—

"It is a pleasure to endorse Konjola; it is simply wonderful. This master medicine has completely restored my health, after long suffering from kidney troubles that would not yield to any medicine or treatment I tried. I suffered intense pains in the back, and at night had to rise numerous time. This wrecked my rest, and I was failing generally in health. My system was filling rapidly with poisons that the kidneys did not throw off, and I was alarmed over my condition. Fortunately for me, I met my friend, John Sontag, who told me what Konjola had done for him, and he urged me to give this new medicine a trial. The results were a great surprise, and four bottles of this wonderful compound affected a complete recovery. My back ache has disappeared, I sleep well at nights and now I am gaining in strength day by day. I could feel the ingredients of Konjola working on the kidneys and my recovery was quick right from the start. My wish is that my experience with this great medicine will become known to all who suffer as I did, for I know Konjola will solve all their health problems."

Almost invariably Konjola brings quick results as in this case. Its 32 ingredients, 22 of which are the juices of medicinal roots and herbs, work on the ailing organs. These are strengthened and invigorated; the blood-stream is enriched, and soon pain and suffering yield to the return of new and lasting health.

Konjola contains juices from 22 plants—more than other medicines. It is a new compound that works with the sufferer's food, restoring more healthful action to the important organs (stomach, liver, kidneys and bowels) and producing new energy and glorious health in a natural way, thru the entire inner-system.

West Branch Iowa Awaits "Big Moment"

Birthplace Of Herbert Hoover "Holds Breath"; Hope "Herbie" Wins

Small Village Has Sprung Into Prominence Through Former Popular Youth

(International News Service)

WEST BRANCH, Iowa., Nov. 5.—With the serenity of its Quaker traditions, West Branch, Iowa, today awaited the "big moment" which may make it immortal as the birthplace of a president of the United States.

So sure is this Iowa village of 800 persons that it will go down in history as the cradle of Herbert Hoover, president, that it has quietly made arrangements for a monster celebration next Thursday, two days after election, intended to shatter the usual calm.

Mayor N. F. Olsen announced today that daylight fireworks have been purchased, Governor John Hammill invited to speak, and the countryside for miles around notified that West Branch is ready to "stand treat."

Signs of the celebration were everywhere in evidence today. Flags and bunting which bedecked the streets, stores and residences when "Herbie" came home last August to retrace boyish trails, were being hauled out of storage today.

"We won't take it down until Friday, either," the mayor said with calm assurance.

The little house where the Republican nominee was born was getting an extra polishing for this week.

Rheumatism In Knee Forced Her To Use Crutches

New Castle Lady Says Ten Herbs Gave Relief And Helped Her In May Ways.

"Ten Herbs has given me relief from rheumatism in my right knee, after I had been compelled to walk on crutches for a long time," was the recent statement of Mrs. Nelly Horst, who lives on Quest street, New Castle, to the Ten Herbs Man, who is at Eckerd's of New Castle, Inc., 30 East Washington Street, this city, where he is daily demonstrating this great natural compound to crowds of men and women. "Your medicine also has benefited me in many other ways," continued Mrs. Horst.

"Besides the rheumatism, my appetite was poor, and I suffered with indigestion after eating. I would seem to fill with gas and bloat, and my tongue was always coated. I had to live on a light diet, chiefly wheat bread and oranges. My nerves were in bad condition. At night I would roll and toss in bed and have to arise four or five times. In the morning I would have a splitting headache. There were severe pains through my back and loins. I was badly constipated, and my skin was sallow.

"I read about Ten Herbs in the paper and finally started using your medicine. My rheumatism has been relieved so that I can get around without the use of crutches. My appetite has improved, and I can eat a greater variety of food, including meat, which I had not eaten for many years. I am free of gas, bloating and burning feeling after a meal. Pains are gone from my back. I sleep soundly, as I do not have to arise at night. My liver has been benefited, and as a result my complexion has greatly improved. Even friends notice how much better I am looking, and I tell them it is the result of my using Ten Herbs. I have been greatly surprised at the benefits your medicine has given me."

The Ten Herbs Man is at Eckerd's of New Castle, Inc., 30 East Washington Street, this city, where he is daily meeting the public and explaining the merits of this medicine.

LIBERAL ALLOWANCE FOR YOUR OLD WASHER.

Women who have bought the New Gainaday Electric Washer no longer insist on washing their dainty things by hand. The $100,000 New Gainaday tub, glassy-smooth and without a single moving part inside, employing water action alone for cleansing, is warranted protection for even your most delicately fine fabrics.

Truly, no other washer is so kind to clothes as the New Gainaday. Nor has it an equal anywhere for quick, thorough cleansing, even when there are heavy, bulky blankets or grimy, greasy overalls in the wash. Strong statements? Yes, but we will prove them in a demonstration in your own home, if you will call us on the telephone. There is no obligation. Convenient terms if you decide to buy.

Your BROADWAY And Mine

By Walter Winchell

Exclusive Central Press Dispatch to The New Castle News

NEW YORK, Nov. 5.—In one of the new speakeasies there is a sign over the bar with the cryptic announcement: WYBMADITY?

The natural thing for the patrons to do is inquire the meaning, to which the bartender retorts: "Will you buy me a drink if I tell you?"

TO A NEW LOVE

You are like all men—
Selfish....conceited....vain.
Taking a woman's heart in your hands.
Breaking it into bits.
And then throwing the pieces to the winds.
You are like all your sex—
Faithless....heartless....callous.
Loving a little here
And a little there.
And now it is my turn
To thrill at your kisses.
And like most women who have loved you,
I, too, shall worship you for a time...
But, ah, my newest love
For such a little time.

A FORM OF CRITICISM

The night Hoover talked at Madison Square Garden, a Smith Hebrew peddler had the courage among all those Republicans to cry out his wares in this manner: "Buy a Smith pin and I'll give a Hoover one for nothing!"

MAKE BELIEVING

Perhaps a concrete example of first-rate play acting is witnessed in a new melodrama at a 45th street theater. The leading man and woman, who are seen in several blazing love episodes, including a much-talked-about boudoir setting, are no longer on speaking terms with each other. Off stage or on the street they ignore each other. The feud started over something or other a fortnight ago. But out there on the stage their embraces and kisses are sizzling, and the spectators out front would never suspect that he irritates his leading lady at almost every performance by smearing a bit of garlic on his lips just before the curtain lifts.

For More Uniform Heat
Burn Youngstown Domestic COKE
coal in its most efficient form

Coke burns with a slower, steadier bed of flame, giving off an even uniform heat that keeps the temperature in the home appreciably more uniform. It requires less attention than coal—fewer trips to the furnace, less bother with drafts, and less stoking and shaking down.

Coke is cleaner—it burns without soot or smoke and is free from the grimy dust of coal which sifts through the house and is constantly tracked upstairs.

With coke you have abundant, uniform warmth with less furnace tending labor and a new degree of heating cleanliness. It is the ideal solid fuel for house-heating, as experience will convince you. 'Phone your dealer and order a supply of Youngstown Domestic Coke now.

Record Crowd Hears Sermon

Over 2,500 Are Present At Everybody's Tabernacle Sunday Night

FORGETTING GOD IS EVANGELIST'S THEME

Not one seat was vacant, and people were standing about the walls at Everybody's Tabernacle at the corner of South Mill and Friendship streets Sunday evening when Evangelist C. H. Erickson entered into the seventh week of his services in New Castle by preaching on "Forgetting God". It is estimated that about 2,600 people, a record crowd for the tabernacle, heard the sermon.

"And they have forgotten the Lord, their God", was the text from which the evangelist preached. He began his sermon by telling of the trials of the children of Israel, how they were sold into bondage because they forgot God, and of their struggles through the wilderness because they would forget God momentarily.

"God talked to men in the days of old and he would talk to men now if they would not forget him", continued Mr. Erickson. "It is because of the hardness of men's hearts: because they will not let the spirit of true Christianity enter into them, that God refuses to speak to men now. That is the reason that he keeps his voice away.

"Because people cannot see God personally, because he does not appear to them in an anthopomorphic form, the one-time children of God have left Him. They have forgotten to stay close to God. They have become so busy with worldly, mundane things, that they have almost forgotten that there is a God: and they have truly forgotten the one sure means of salvation. No, they will not come to Him.

"Christ made salvation possible. He lived, He bled on the cross of Calvary and he died just so that the sinner might be saved. His was the supreme sacrifice. And what have you done to merit this? Nothing. You have even forgotten your God.

"It is more easy to forget God today than it was for the children of Israel to forget him thousands of years ago. They forgot him, and upon them God showered especial favors. And He also let grave disasters fall upon them.

"It seems that God must let some calamity happen before the people will turn to Him for salvation for their souls. Some disaster must occur before the people of today will remember God.

"How many people today leave God outside?" concluded Mr. Ericksen. "Let us all be ready for Him. Let us know that God is not trying to frighten, but that He is merely trying to warn. It is common sense for man to stay away from danger. It is common sense for a man to fear Satan, and it is common sense for him to run away from hell. Some have forgotten God day in and day out. But not tonight! Will you come to God tonight? Will you let God give you courage to forget sin and begin life anew?"

At the close of the sermon about 20 answered the altar call, sung by the Alliance colored quintette, confessing Jesus Christ, the Son of God, as their personal saviour.

There will be no services at the tabernacle Monday evening, announced the evangelist at the beginning of his sermon. Tuesday morning at 10 o'clock a special prayer service will take place at the Christian Missionary Alliance at the corner of East Washington and Pearson streets. Tuesday evening Mr. Ericksen will again preach on divine healing. At this time some election returns will be given at the tabernacle. Wednesday evening there will be a special testimonial meeting at the tabernacle, at which time those who have felt the hand of God during the services are asked to be present and give their testimonials.

Thursday evening Mr. Ericksen will give the second half of his "Second Coming Sermon", which was started Thursday evening, Oct. 27, and Friday evening another sermon on divine healing will be preached. Saturday evening will be music night.

Mr. Erickson also announced that at the services Sunday afternoon over $3,000 had been pledged to support the tabernacle, and at the evening service several hundreds more were pledged so that the work could continue in New Castle.

(International News Service)

YORK, Pa., Nov. 5.—Shades of political traditions—Herbert Hoover and Al Smith are warm friends.

Herbert Hoover, a country school teacher, and Al Smith, an ice man, are both residents of Glen Rock near here. Since the presidential campaign started the namesakes of the candidates (or is it the other way?) have become the most prominent citizens in town.

Herbert Hoover, the teacher, is said to resemble the Democratic Presidential nominee, while Al Smith, of Glen Rock, resembles the Republican standard-bearer.

ALL YOUNGSTERS NEED CEREALS

Sugar as a flavor makes these healthful foods enjoyable

Growing bones and teeth require the health-giving minerals and vitamins that are freely found in grain cereals and breakfast foods. Grains are nature's foods and they supply elements necessary to growth and nutrition. They are excellent in connection with milk, but is it sometimes hard to get children to eat them?

A judicious and reasonable amount of sugar added to these foods will work wonders in making them palatable, tasteful and enjoyable. No ingredient adds so much to the taste appeal of other foods. Sugar adds to the enjoyment of all kinds of fresh fruits and vegetables, so valuable in the diet of growing children. Use sugar as a condiment in making healthful foods acceptable to the palate. Sweetness, as the perfect flavor in foods, stimulates the flow of saliva and of gastric juice, thereby aiding digestion, as well as enjoyment.

Medical authorities warn parents to guard the nutrition of their children. See that your children eat regularly of varied, nutritious foods—thereby being safeguarded against such diseases as tuberculosis. Far better that your child be slightly overweight for its height and age than a single pound underweight. Sound nutrition is absolutely necessary to health and proper development. Seniors Preparing For Twelfth Night

Shakespearean Play To Be Presented At High School This Week

Much activity is afoot these days in the senior high school. Preparations are being made on an extensive scale to present Shakespeare's "Twelfth Night" to record audiences of friends of the school and students Thursday and Friday nights.

Tickets are being sold through the various classes as teams headed by the class presidents: Senior A, Charles Perry; senior B, Otto Pearsall; junior A, Jack White; junior B, Melvin Moorhouse; sophomore A, Jack Stevenson; sophomore B, Mary Gilroy. With such leadership tickets have begun to circulate rapidly.

A patron and patroness committee with Miss Mary Riffer as adviser and Eleanor Rohrer as student chairman is compiling lists with the aid of the friendly telephone, and arranging them in alphabetical order.

The art room for the time being has been turned in to a scene painter's studio under the direction of Miss Emilie Salomon and Miss Bess Gailey. Trees and hedges grow with surprising speed, not to mention perfection, under the hands of their student apprentices. The strength of sturdy scenery which will not go to pieces under the rough handling of the scene shifters is being given to these art products by Mr. Rogers, one of the janitors who happens to be particularly handy with hammer and saw.

Say, Mr. Citizen, don't you wish you were back in high school again?

Sees 400 Electoral Votes For Hoover

Chairman Hubert Work Says Indications Warrant This Forecast

(BULLETIN)
(International News Service)

WASHINGTON, Nov. 5.—Hoover and Curtis will be elected tomorrow by 400 electoral college votes, Hubert Work, Republican national chairman, predicted today in a telegram from his home in Pueblo, Colo., to the Republican national committee.

Work said:

"Reports to Republican headquarters during last week from national committee members and state chairmen warrant the prediction of four hundred Republican electoral votes for Hoover and Curtis on Tuesday.

"The largest registration in the history of the country will congest the polling places, and many may be prevented from casting their ballots late in the day. The greatest activity among precinct workers is important in a vote-early campaign.

"The only necessary thing for Republicans to do now to insure the greatest popular vote ever given to a Presidential nominee is to get the voter to the polls early."

Baptist Men Hear Mayor Gillespie Sunday Morning

Gave Most Encouraging Talk To Class In Its Contest With The Class At Gary, Ind.

"I hope you beat Gary, and there is no question but what you can if you work hard enough," was the encouraging word of Mayor W. H. Gillespie given in a greeting yesterday morning to the Men's Bible Class of the First Baptist church.

Mayor Gillespie said that such contests as that now being carried on between the Baptist Men's Class and the Every Man's Bible Class of the Central Baptist church of Gary, Indiana, were a good thing when conducted properly. He asserted that we learn more about the Bible in a Sunday School class than in the regular church services. "I had men in my class this morning," said the Mayor referring to those who had been brought in by the police Saturday night, "who do not attend Sunday school." "If they had been members of a class like this," he continued, "in all probability they would not have needed a hearing before me this morning." The Mayor also called attention to the fact that when any any good cause is lagging for support, the appeal is always made to the Sunday school and church people of the community to save it from failure.

The Baptist Men's Class is steadily gaining on the Gary Class, and are now 256 points in the lead having made a gain of 72 points yesterday. At the evening service, Pastor Geo. M. Landis, teacher of the class, said: "I felt sure that Gary would give us a close battle, but since they are not; let us beat them as badly as possible, and then look for more worlds to conquer." He invited all men who are not connected with any other Bible Class to attend the Baptist Men's Class.

Mellon Issues His Final Word

Urges Voters To Shun Experiments And Heed "Real Issues"

DEMOCRATIC PLAN CARRIES REAL THREAT

(International News Service)

WASHINGTON, Nov. 5.—In one last effort to aid Herbert Hoover and the entire Republican ticket, Secretary Mellon, before leaving Washington for Pittsburgh to vote, issued a statement urging voters to shun "experiments" and heed the "real issues" of prosperity and high standard of government.

He declared the policies put forward by the Democrats were "of doubtful wisdom and carry with them a real threat to confidence and business stability".

He opposed substitution of a competitive for a protective tariff, and added:

"I do not believe that the government should go into the business of buying and selling agricultural commodities or fixing their prices or undertake to operate public utilities such as power plants and distribution systems."

Women's Federated Clubs

POLITICAL INFORMATION FOR WOMEN.

"Children are the State's Greatest Asset."

To the hard headed business man, sometimes the requests of women's organizations don't seem so very important, but to the 67th congress goes the credit of passing the greatest Welfore measure of the last decade.

The women of the country asked but two things of the 67th congress—the Maternity-Infancy act and a law granting independent citizenship for women. That congress made each of those requests an actuality.

The 67th congress passed the Sheppard-Towner bill, better known as the Maternity-Infancy bill. Two hundred fifty thousand babies were dying annually and 20,000 women were dying in childbirth. The United States had the highest maternal death rate of all civilized nations. The passage of the Maternity-Infancy bill carried with it an annual appropriation of $1,240,000 for six years to carry out the provisions of the measure.

Forty-five states have accepted its provisions and in these states infant death rates have decreased from 5 to 15 per cent.

So popular and so efficently was the work carired forward that the 69th congress extended the life of the bill two years with adequate appropriation to carry it to the end of the fiscal year of 1929.

The 67th congress increased appropriations to the children's bureau by $40,000 and to the women's bureau by $25,000 over appropriations of the 66th congress.

The 67th congress appropriated $3,800,000 for women's and children's welfare work.

The first session of the 69th congress appropriated $1,440,000 for the same work.

The 67th congress passed the Cable bill, better known as the Direct Citizenship bill, giving women citizenship on a basis of their own preparation and not that of the husband.

This is a record which has no equal by any previous administration of either party.

Tomorrow November 6, is election day. We are asked to help the election boards by voting early in the day. The county commissioners are anxious that every registered voter may have an opportunity to vote and this can best be done by the co-operation of the women.

Terhune Given Permission To Leave Germany

Passport Difficulties Fixed Up By American Consul At Stuttgart

GOES SHOPPING FOR NEW CLOTHES

(International News Service)

FRIEDRICHSHAFEN, Germany, Nov. 5.—The passport difficulties of Clarence ("Red") Terhune, the 19-year-old Graf Zeppelin stowaway, were cleared away and he can now leave Friedrichshafen without any hindrance from the authorities.

Accompanied by an American newspaper correspondent, Terhune visited J. E. Kehl, United States Consul at Stuttgart, where the official seal was placed upon his passport, then he went to the police station to get his visa. Afterwards he went shopping, for his luggage, when he arrived here, consisted of only a tooth brush and a partly used tube of tooth paste in a cardboard box.

"Red's" funds, when he entered Friedrichshafen so unceremoniously consisted of 11 cents, but this defect was quickly remedied. Among the other things he purchased today were woolen socks and winter underwear.

The youthful and unconventional traveler is struck by the scenery around this city.

"This is certainly a great country," said "Red" admiringly. "This lake (Lake Constance) must be as big as Lake Michigan. Gee, I would like to have one of those fast motor boats for a ride on it. Lots of fellows at Rye have them and go sporting around in them.

(Before he flew into international fame "Red" was a caddy on the links of the Rye, N. Y., country club.

The Way OF THE World

By GROVE PATTERSON

YEARS OF LIFE

Dr. Martin, president of the American College of Surgeons, makes the prediction that by 1930 the average length of life in this country will be 65 years. There is much talk these days about lengthening the span of life. Perhaps we put too much emphasis on it. Intense cultivation of our years is vastly more important than merely adding them on. Many people engage in all sorts of processes for prolonging useless lives. Many live unnecessarily long. They would admit it themselves if they were quite frank. Nevertheless we all hope that Dr. Martin is right in his prediction.

LAUGHING

A Texas physician introduces the case of a woman given up to die at 37 years of age. She thought that inasmuch as it was all settled she might as well stop worrying about it. She immediately set about having as good a time as she could—and lived to be 103.

Laughter clears worry out of the brain and is real exercise for the body. And if a thing can't be helped we might as well laugh as cry about it. And sometimes it is helped, after all.

ISSUES AND ELECTIONS

A presidental election in which there are well defined issues and much super-heated opinion is a great thing for the republic. It revives interest in government and public affairs to a great degree. More than ever people appreciate, at such times, the right to vote. They register by hundred of thousands—men and women who never cared much about voting before. Nothing like good healthy issues and some hot opinions to stir the blood of the American citizen.

EASY GOING

There is a lot of easy going in America which we do not appreciate until we compare conditions here with those in some other countries. In England there is a tax of five dollars per horse power on autos and an eight cent per gallon tax on gasoline. To meet the demand of those who cannot afford much, manufacturers offer small cars with ten horse power. This means a fifty dollar tax, but the cars will do 45 miles or more on a gallon of gasoline.

It is interesting to note that American motor cars are not selling as freely in England as they once did. While in the first quarter of 1927 the number of American automobiles imported into England was 307,000, in the corresponding quarter of 1928 in fell to 200,000. The department of commerce figures show that in the second quarter of 1927, 444,000 American automobiles were imported, while the number in the second quarter of 1928 had fallen to 256,000.

In the old days people told fortunes by the stars; now we tell stars by their fortunes.

You can tell the people who never before visited a winter resort. They aren't taking overcoats.

GLENDORA

Starting the day wrong is often a matter of not having a good cup of coffee-for breakfast-

Very often the contributing factor to the morning "grouch" is a poor cup of coffee ... you know the kind with a left-over-from-the-day -before-yesterday" taste and flavor. It sure gets a coffee lover's Angora.

But when A GOOD COFFEE ... Glendora ... is served, with its never-changing-always-the-same-flavor ... richness and fragrance ... the heart of the coffee lover is won and the day begins with a new zest that brings forth broad, satisfied smiles.

Only by knowing Glendora will you know the keen, coffee satisfaction which has won for Glendora the title ... A GOOD COFFEE.

1928 Belles Are Not Fat

They end the excess in this easy way

Twenty years ago excess fat was common. Few people of 40 escaped it. Not so today. Slender figures are the rule. All ideas of style and beauty are opposed to fat.

This great change started when science discovered the chief cause of obesity. It lies in an under-active gland. A way was found to correct this deficiency, and multitudes employed it.

This factor was embodied in Marmola prescription tablets. People have used them for over 20 years—millions of boxes of them. That is one great reason for the slender figures you see everywhere today.

Marmola is not secret. Each box contains the formula and the reasons for results. No abnormal exercise or diet is required. Simply take four tablets daily until weight comes down to normal.

Try this method if you over-weigh. Watch the new health and vigor which come when the excess fat departs. Then you will know why so many people, for many years, have urged friends to use Marmola. Go start at once.

Marmola prescription tablets are sold by all druggists at $1 per box. If your druggist is out, he will get them at once from his jobber.

New Castle Fair Dates Determined

August 27, 28, 29 And 30 Are Dates Set For Fair Next Year

LOCAL FAIR STARTS ONE MONTH EARLIER

August 27, 28, 29 and 30 are the dates set for the 1929 New Castle fair, according to the decision reached at the meeting of the board of directors which met in the Agricultural Extension association office on Croton avenue Friday evening.

This year, state fair officials, the association lost several thousand dollars in gate and grand stand receipts due to the lateness of the season and the cold weather. The change of date was made in order that the fair might take place during a warmer period of the fall.

In addition to this, the fair will be immediately followed by no less than three other district fairs which will mean that additional displays will be present due to no conflictions, and the proximity to these other fairs. The nearest fair on the same dates is more than 100 miles distant so it is thought that even greater crowds will be present.

Don Morrissey, Criticised Because He Did Not Know Language, Studies

(International News Service)

DUBLIN, Nov. 5.—Don Morrissey, deputy speaker of the Dail spent his parliamentary holidays trying to learn Irish. He went to Spiddal, the Irish speaking district of alway, where he mixed Schivel with the natives. He is a member of the Labor party. On his appointment a few months ago he was much criticized on the score that he did not know Irish. When the Dail re-opens one of the chief measures to be introduced is the evil literature bill which will permit the Free State government to banish all propaganda dealing with birth control and kindred sex topics.

Veterans' Bureau Doing Good Work For Disabled Vets

Red Cross Secretary Cites Soldiers' Relief Figures

Pat J. Dempsey, executive secretary of the Lawrence county chapter of the American Red Cross, today cited interesting statistics and figures of the United States Veterans' bureau, which holds great concern for the families and relatives of ex-soldiers of the county.

Through the local chapter of the Red Cross, scores of World War vets are assisted in countless ways. Claims are filed for them and taken care of by the organization; they are helped when in distress and officials do their best to see that the "boys" are provided for. It is with the Veterans' bureau that much of the work is carried on, and so as to acquaint the public with the workings of the bureau, the secretary gives out the following.

Mr. Dempsey said in part:

"Up to August 31, 1928, the Veterans' bureau had paid out in compensation to disabled veterans and dependents a total of $1,280,189,914. Veterans to the number of 359,86[illegible] are now receiving disability compensation requiring an expenditure of over $12,000,000 each month. Dependents of deceased war veterans to the number of 87,037 are receiving compensation—a monthly expenditure of over $2,660,000. The total disbursements of the bureau to August 31, aggregated $4,416,880,986.

"Combined costs during the past year of all forms of veterans relief including U. S. V. B., pension bureau, soldiers' home and the like, aggregated $750,000,000. The peak of hospitalization for mental and nervous disabilities, General Frank T. Hines, director of the bureau, estimates, will not be reached before 1947.

"On June 30, 1928, 50 hospitals operated by the U. S. V. B. showed a total bed capacity of 23,112, an increase of 1,302 beds during the previous year. Ninety per cent of the bureau patients are now housed in Government hospitals."

Dempsey concluded that "the veterans' bureau is now erecting a new hospital at Portland, Ore. This structure will provide accommodation for about 300 men."

Greek Americans Support Hoover

Greek American Progressive Association Announce Selves For Hoover

"Go to the polls tomorrow morning early and cast your vote for Herbert Hoover," was the final words of Frank Mantinaous, president of the Greek-American Progressive association at their regular meeting which took place November 4 in the club rooms located on Long avenue.

The local Greek-American society at this time unanimously declared themselves for the Republican candidate and will vote accordingly tomorrow, stated the president.

In the first part of the meeting, three new members were initiated into membership in the order. These men were Harry Hristopouls, Thomas Aginites and George Cowlaxis.

The rooms of the G. A. P. A. lodge which were being renovated and decorated have been completed stated the president and a public opening day for the club house will be announced shortly.

It is interesting to note that Dr. Hugo Eckener requires only $14,000,000 to make his dream of a regular trans-Atlantic air service come true. This is an ideal investment for those who want their money to go a long way.—The Hamilton Spectator.

By Accurate Record, 98 Out of 100 Women Who Report After Taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Say That It Has Helped Them

THERE are three trying periods in a woman's life: when the girl matures to womanhood; when a woman gives birth to her first child; when a woman reaches middle age. At these times Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound helps to restore normal health and vigor. Countless thousands testify to its worth.

FLORENCE BURNETT
12 Withington Street, Dorchester, Mass.

"My daughter Florence is 14 years old and has been very sick for the last two years, able to attend school only half of the time. I saw an ad. in the Boston Post and decided to give her Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. She has taken four bottles and is so much better. She is rather tall for her age and her appetite has improved and she is better in every way. I thought I would let you hear from us as we are nearer than those who live in the West. I shall be glad to help any mother who writes to me."—Mrs. Burnett, 12 Withington Street, Dorchester, Massachusetts.

MRS. CORA CALAHAN
216 E. Ashton Ave., Grand Island, Neb.

"I am a married woman going through the Change of Life. At times I thought I would lose my mind. I would cry for hours. I got so tired of going to the doctor so I thought 'So many women have taken Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound I will try some.' Before I had taken the first bottle I began to get better. I have taken eight bottles now. I feel that it has saved my life, also doctor's bills. I work for a family of six, washing, cooking and do all my own work. People say I look like I am 25 years old."—Mrs. Cora Calahan, 216 E. Ashton Ave., Grand Island, Nebraska.

MRS. F. C. HELMING
822 E. Harrison St., Portland, Oregon

"Lydia E. Pinkham did for me what doctors failed to do. When the Change of Life began I was very poorly. Now at fifty-five years of age I do all my own work, attend two dances a week and it is hard to make people believe I am over forty. I never see a woman in ill health but I advocate your medicine because I know its value. Every woman should take it at the critical age, not just for a month or two but until they know they have passed the critical period."—Mrs. F. C. Helming, 822 E. Harrison St., Portland, Oregon.

Tuesday's Vote To Decide Whether Or Not Hornsby Goes

If Massachusetts Allows Sunday Baseball Hornsby May Stay With Braves

(International News Service)

CHICAGO, Nov. 5.—The inside story of the proposed purchase of Rogers Hornsby of the Boston Braves by the Chicago Cubs was claimed to be revealed today in a story of Harry Neily published in the Chicago Evening American.

According to the American the vote of whether or not Massachusetts is to have Sunday baseball will determine largely whether Hornsby comes to the Cubs. If Sunday baseball is permitted in the Bay State, the Braves may want a larger sum for Hornsby than the Cubs will pay; if Sunday baseball is defeated, the Boston club, it is believed, will let Hornsby go to the Chicago club at a price now agreed upon by the Cubs.

The American states that no official of the Cubs has intimated this is the real situation but points out it appears reasonable that this is the "low-down" on the Hornsby deal.

A statement as to the deal is expected to be made probably Wednesday, after the result of the vote in Massachusetts is known.

Marshals To Act As Supervisors Only Where Federal Officers Are Concerned

(International News Service)

WASHINGTON, Nov. 5.—An army of U. S. marshals tomorrow will in effect supervise elections throughout the country to prevent frauds at the polls. Their activities, however, under the law, must be confined to election to federal offices.

The Department of Justice set in motion weeks ago the machinery of its United States attorneys' offices and marshals to investigate and prosecute irregularities in connection with the national election just as soon as the election is over.

It was declared at the Department of Justice that the federal statute definitely limits the authority of federal officials in elections. Federal authorities, it was explained, cannot place watchers at the polls merely for the purpose of anticipating law violation, but must investigate complaints made after the alleged offense has been committed. Several requests for special deputy marshals at polling places have been turned down by the department for this reason, it was said.

What makes a typical co-ed typical? Well, take the case of eighteen-year-old Elizabeth Woolley (above), of Pasadena, Cal., who has just been selected as typifying the beauty and brains of University of California girl students. (International News Service)

PITTSBURGH, Nov. 5.—Despondency over being scolded by his mother may have been the reason for the suicide of Carl Schultz, 28, the coroner's office, investigating the case, believed today.

He failed to come home from work Saturday afternoon, remaining out until early Sunday morning, it was said, and his mother reprimanded him, the coroner's office learned from Schultz's brother.

REV. HODGE EXPLAINS POSITION OF NEGRO IN PRESENT ELECTION

The attendance was all that could be expected at Bethel A. M. E. Zion church Sunday afternoon when the pastor, Rev. William Hodge, discussed at length the position of the American negro in the present election.

After a brief review of the two major parties and their attitude toward the colored people of this country, both past and present, the speaker advised that the American negro could not consistently support the national Democratic ticket at this time. Rev. Hodge pointed out some conditions existing under Democratic control, such as the Jim Crow laws, peonage system, three months' school disfranchisement, and many other things too unwholesome to mention.

But the poor wouldn't have any more children than the rich if they were made to pay as the rich are.

SCHOOL TAX EXONERATIONS

Did you pay your personal school tax for 1927?

If so, would you have supposed that there were almost 6000 men and women of New Castle who did not pay their personal school tax for that year?

Could there be any good reason for this?

Can any one think of any good reason why this tax was not collected from more than 1000 people in a single ward?

Could there be any reason why it was not collected from more than 800 persons in each of four other wards?

The fact is however, that it was not so collected. The total amount for the city for that single year was $31,107.77.

All these assertions are matters of record in the office of the School Board. The office is on East Street.

While the City Treasurer did not collect this personal school tax, for the year 1927, to the amount of $31,107.77, he did draw as compensation for his four year term, the sum of $80,861.14. He paid his assistants out of this.

That is a lot of money. It is by far the best paying office in the county.

The point is that this former City Treasurer, Ira M. Ramsey, is now the Democratic candidate for the General Assembly from the First District of Lawrence County, which is New Castle.

He was a member of the Democratic Party when he served as City Treasurer. He is the candidate of that party now. He is asking Republicans to elect him to the General Assembly.

What are the advantages to be gained from electing a member of the Democratic Party to the Pennsylvania General Assembly? Let us ask ourselves that question.

The value of a legislator to his district is measured in part by his vote on various bills. It is measured very largely by his ability to know what is going on.

It is measured by his ability to know his way around, by his place on committees, by his acquaintances, personal and political, with the influential men in Harrisburg. By his contacts with persons of influence, by his appreciation of the cross currents and cross purposes that are always active in any capitol city. In short, a legislator receives attention only in proportion as he compels attention. He compels attention only as he is in position to do so.

A Democratic representative from this district or this section of the state is in no position to compel or receive attention.

If the people of this district want anything for their district, they should send Republicans to Harrisburg.

Rick Company Has Grand Opening; Is Successful Event

Estimate Close To 4,000 Persons View New J. R. Rick Motor Company Home

FAVORS ARE GIVEN TO ALL VISITORS

According to the estimates of Joe Rick, head of the new J. R. Rick Motor company building at the corner of East Washington street and Florence avenue, fully 4,000 persons visited the beautiful new headquarters on Saturday and Sunday. The new building was formally dedicated on Saturday.

The doors of the establishment were thrown open at 10 o'clock Saturday morning and from that time until after midnight the building was filled with a steady stream of persons. Favors in the form of roses were given to each lady, the men recived cigars and the children were given balloons. Over 3,000 favors were given out by attendants.

The public was greatly impressed with the magnificent new home of the J. R. Rick Motor company and praise was heard on every hand for the beautiful interior work and the wonderful new modern improvements in autombile homes.

"The grand opening was a big success never have I seen such enthusiasm and interest shown at an opening, there were so many new faces in the crowd that jammed the building" said Joe Rick today.

"I want to thank the citizens of New Castle and Lawrence county for their interest in the opening. It was quite different from the first opening that I had" stated Mr. Rick.

In the big 85 by 40 show room on the main floor the Rick company had on display 20 new automobiles of the Whippet and Willys-Knight make. In the used car department were found numerable numbers of re-conditioned cars.

Of especial interest was a re-conditioned Willys-Knight sedan that had turned over three times. The machine has been fixed by the Rick company until one could not tell it had been wrecked until informed of a mishap. The car looks almost brand new.

The beautiful floral display that added to the general attractiveness of the show-room were presented by business associates of Mr. Rick.

The J. R. Rick Motor company is now ready to give the automobile public of the city and county the best modern up-to-date service possible from repair work to cleaning.

NEW CASTLE "OUR CASTLE"

by The Woman's Club — Organized in 1889.

"GOD COULDN'T BE EVERYWHERE, SO HE MADE MOTHERS."

In this proverb, even the pagam recognizes in the mother, a God appointed guardian of the race.

Our own city knows no greater need than just such guardianship or mothering—for our homes, for our schools, for our recreations and for our public housekeeping. To aid such work is the aim of this column.

AT THE POLLS TUESDAY

Through the forethought of their public welfare department, Mrs. Howard M. Kirk, chairman, members of the Woman's club have had in their possesion for the past week sample ballots for the purpose of gaining such familiarity with the proposed amendments as will enable them to vote expeditiously on Tuesday. The intense interest shown gives assurance that many will heed the injunction given that they be among those in line at 7 o'clock.

OF ESPECIAL INTEREST TO WOMEN

Naturally the chief interest centers in the vote for president. But the subjects of three of the proposed bond issues are by no means new to the club women of New Castle. For, in the state and district meetings of the State Federation of Pennsylvania Women, year after year, these special needs have been presented: The need of ample funds to make of State college a university worthy of our great state and of our youth; the need of conservation of our wood supply thru replanting and acquiring additional forest areas; and the pitiful need of additional accommodations to take take care of penal offenders, delinquents, mental defectives and epilectics. We need go no farther than our neighboring institution at Polk to find how totally inadequate its facilities are to meet the demands. And this is only one of the many similar cases. These needs require no arguments to substantiate them—they are undisputed and have been. But at the last minute the plea is made that owing to a large surplus in the treasury they can be met by current revenue. And they probably could.

But on the other hand, in addition to repeated failures to secure appropriations to appreciably relieve situations which continue to disgrace our state in the over-crowded condition of welfare institutions, we are reminded that the surplus in the treasury will never be used to meet these demands. That education, reforestation and the care of criminals and delinquents and the mentally deficient are not in politics; that there are too many competing interests that are in politics, and the money will go where politics points.

CLASSIC PLAY IN SENIOR HIGH SCHOOL

Those persons—and they are probably not a few—who have felt that some of the plays given for a number of years in the senior high school have not quite measured up in literature and ideals to the high standards we would like to set for our children will be pleased at the announcement that this year's first play is one of Shakespeare's—"Twelfth Night".

Miss Hartsuff tells us that while the young people undertook this play rather reluctantly, they are now enjoying it immensely and also appreciate the benefits being derived from its study.

It will be refreshing to the patrons of high school plays to enjoy the privilege of seeing "Twelfth Night".

Roaming Round With Richards

Some News, Some Views, But Mostly Just Observations Of Interesting Things Around New Castle

The farthest pasture is always the greenest, according to an old copy book maxim. A cow will always take a chance on strangulation just to get her head through the fence and take a bite of the grass outside.

The same is true of humans and probably explains the reason for the Coaltown chap who goes hunting every year for rabbits, but always goes miles away from home.

Within a stone's throw of his home there is a thicket which is the hiding place for a lot of rabbits, and strangers know it as a good hunting ground. But the Coaltown chap has to drive many miles for the bunnies and usually comes back with many less than he could have popped over nearly on his own back yard.

Deer are beginning to migrate towards Lawrence County. Looking for the new game farm perhaps. J. Johnson Fisher is reported as having seen two does on the Ellwood Road the other afternoon and certainly two does would not be roaming around the country unaccompanied.

It may be that the does know that Lawrence County is a sanctuary for them this season and came over for protection.

Reading the compilation of college football scores for Saturday always gives me a chuckle. Always there are names in the list that are totally strange. Not that I am entirely ignorant of the location of the more important colleges, but the smaller ones are by me.

How about yourself? Do you know where they are? Let's find out. Where is Clarkson? Or Wilberforce? Or Moyer? How about Ripon, Hampden-Sidney, Bethel, Earlham, Upsala, Capital, Ursinus, Lombard, Springhill, Tusculum, Carelton, Millsaps, Rollins, Augustana, St. Viator, McKendree, Hurtleff, Midland?

Can you tell me where they are? All of them are colleges of some size or another, all of them have football teams and all of them played last Saturday.

There is one spot in the city on Saturday night to which a large number of the city's population is drawn and that spot is The News Building on North Mercer street. Whether they even went to college or not the folks are drawn to see The News bulletin board with the tabulation of scores for the day for somehow the college fever hits everybody in football season.

Ellwood High Plays Aliquippa Scoreless Tie

(By TONY PASTA.)

ELLWOOD CITY, Nov. 5.—A scoreless deadlock was the result of a hectic fotball game played Saturday afternoon on the Lincoln field here between Ellwood City High and Harding High of Aliquippa. The blue and white outplayed the visitors but failed to score when the opportunity came.

Coach Lippe started the contest with several subs but was forced to send in his first string men a few minutes after the sound of the whistle when Lee's warriors brought the ball down the field within scoring distance. Playing in a field of mud and water both elevens resorted to a plunge attack.

Ellwood City kicked off and after making a first down the valley team was forced to punt. At this early stage of the battle the blue and white started to march down the field with Bill King making three large gains by bucking the line. After placing the ball within ten yards of the goal the Aliquippa lads tightened up and forced the Tubers to give up the ball on downs. If Coach Lippe had not sent in his reserves at this stage of the fray perhaps the Tubers may have scored.

This practically ended the first quarter with Harding High in possession of the pigskin. Failing to make first down the red and black punted but were soon returned the ball when Ellwood also punted. A pretty pass, Murphy to Smith, netted a gain but not enough to register a first down. An exchange of punts again followed and the half ended with Lee's gridders starting a steady march up the field.

In the third period Harding outplayed the blue and white as Abed and Murphy got into action. It was at this part of the battle that Aliquippa looked best and threatened to overcome the Tubers. Several passes and end runs brought the ball within 20 yards of the blue and white's goal, the nearest the enemy had yet advanced in Ellwood's territory. But the Leemen realizing the danger tightened up and forced Aliquippa to punt.

With the ball near the center of the field Ellwood began to pierce the opponents line. Fanno advanced the ball 20 yards with a clever triple play but the blue and white was again brought to a halt. A nice break at this moment gave the Leemen a chance to score. Ferd Wehman, substitute lineman for the Tubers recovered a punt within 35 yards from the goal. Feridoff, Segedi and King made a first down. Another was annexed bringing the ball within ten yards of scoring distance. King and Fanno made futile attempts to pierce through the line but could only obtain one half of the distance. On the last down King made a final attempt and was almost successful, being stopped just one foot from the goal line.

Aliquippa immediately kicked out of danger and Peck Lee in a final attack sent in Justine, regular halfback but it was too late. Ellwood resorted to an aerial game but was not successful in completing the passes. After failing to gain ground by this method the blue and white punted and the game ended with Harding High in possession of the ball.

King was again the outstanding performer for the blue and white, making the most gains by plunging the line. Bill Smith and Griffiths played well on the offense and did some high class tackling. Turner held down his position at end like an old veteran and was continually breaking through the opponents defense.

Willie Justine who is nursing a bad knee failed to be in good shape to start the contest and saw action for only a few minutes. Lawrence has not yet recovered fully from illness and Duncan is said to have quit school but no definite report has been secured.

Joe Murphy, Smith and Abed starred for the visitors. Time after time these men made valiant struggle to get away but were always stopped. Murphy, quarterback and Abed fullback, did not start the contest but were sent in a few minutes after the whistle blew. Joe is a fast man but the condition of the field slackened his speed to a great extent.

A large crowd turned out to see the contest which proved to be as thrilling as was predicted. Both teams played a clean steady game and neither suffered any serious penalties.

Next Saturday the Tubers will clash with New Brighton. Aliquippa played a deadlock with them and recently the Brighton lads triumphed over Beaver who also tied with Harding high. It would take a good dope man to figure out whether Ellwood can beat its next opponent as the bucket is being upset too often.

Instigated Dry Law?

Judge A. R. Webber, above, who presided over the trial of Lewis Cicco, Lorain, O., dry agent, charged with shooting a girl, is said to be the man who fired the first gun in congress of the campaign that was to result 20 years later in the passage of the federal prohibition law. Judge Webber, then a congressman, introduced a bill to make the District of Columbia dry, something no delegate to Washington up to that time had had the courage to propose.

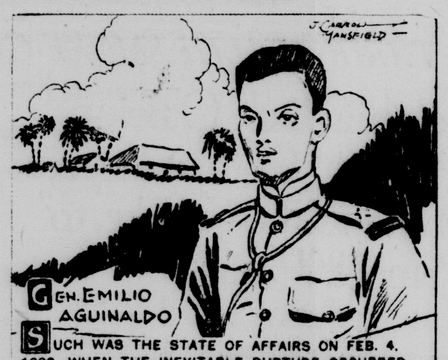
The Philippine Insurrection
The Opposing Forces At Manila

THE FACTION IN CONGRESS OPPOSED TO THE ACQUISITION OF THE PHILIPPINES WAS STRONG ENOUGH TO POSTPONE THE FINAL VOTE UPON THE RATIFICATION OF THE TREATY OF PARIS (WHICH BROUGHT THE SPANISH-AMERICAN WAR TO A CLOSE) UNTIL FEBRUARY 6, 1899. MEANWHILE, AGUINALDO, THE FILIPINO INSURGENT LEADER, PREPARED TO MAKE WAR ON THE UNITED STATES TROOPS IN THE ISLANDS AS INVADERS.

AT THAT TIME THE AMERICAN OUTPOSTS GUARDING MANILA STRETCHED IN A WIDE ARC AROUND THE CITY, ITS ENDS ON MANILA BAY AND ITS EXTREME INLAND POINT AT SANTA MESA. ONE AMERICAN DIVISION UNDER GEN. MACARTHUR HELD THE LINE NORTH OF THE PASIG RIVER, WHICH BISECTS THE CITY, ANOTHER UNDER GENERAL ANDERSON GUARDED THE SOUTH SIDE. THE TOTAL AMERICAN FORCE IN THE ISLANDS WAS ABOUT 21,000 MEN, MORE THAN HALF OF THEM HOLDING MANILA.

FOUR HUNDRED YARDS IN FRONT OF OUR OUTPOSTS, AND EXTENDING PARALLEL FOR THE ENTIRE LENGTH OF THE LINE, LAY THE EARTHWORKS OF THE FILIPINO INSURGENTS, MANNED BY SOME 20,000 MEN. THE INSURGENTS WERE TRUCULENT AND INSULTING, BUT THE AMERICAN SOLDIERS HAD BEEN ORDERED TO BEAR THEIR TAUNTS AND THREATS IN SILENCE AND TO DO NOTHING THAT WOULD PRECIPITATE HOSTILITIES.



SUCH WAS THE STATE OF AFFAIRS ON FEB. 4, 1899, WHEN THE INEVITABLE RUPTURE OCCURRED. AGUINALDO BELIEVED THAT A HOSTILE DEMONSTRATION BY THE FILIPINOS JUST BEFORE THE TIME APPOINTED FOR THE FINAL VOTE ON THE TREATY IN CONGRESS WOULD BRING ABOUT ITS REJECTION. THE SIGNAL WAS GIVEN FOR AN ATTACK UPON THE CITY.

TOMORROW—THE NIGHT ATTACK ON MANILA.

NEW CASTLE DEFEATS SOUTH HILLS 12-0

Revamped Backfield Shows Fine Strength

New Castle High School Football Team Adds South Hills To Victims; Game Is Played In Sea Of Mud And Water; McIntosh And Shaffer Tally Touchdowns; Penalties And Fumbles Costly To Red And Black; Visitors Have Fine Team; Several New Castle Players Injured; Crowd Of 5,000 Witnesses Game

By "BUGS" WALTHER

PLOWING through mud and water ankle deep at Franklin Field on Saturday afternoon, the strong New Castle High school football team gained a 12 to 0 decision over the heretofore unbeaten South Hills High team of Pittsburgh. A crowd of about 5,000 viewed the game.

The precarious footing caused by mud and water from a two-day rain here kept spectacular plays to a minimum. Fumbles were quite prominent, both teams doing an equal share in this regard. Penalties to the total of 90 yards greatly hampered the New Castle team. South Hills drew but 20 yards in penalties.

Coach Philip H. Bridenbaugh placed a revamped backfield into the game, and the result was highly pleasing. Merle "Red" McIntosh and Glenn Shaffer, both used as replacements, came through with the touchdowns. "Tommy" Harper didn't score, but the stocky halfback staged several runs that put the Bridenbaugh machine in scoring position.

South Hills High sent a beefy team to Lawrence county. The Pittsburghers were well coached. The invaders never threatened the New Castle goal line, but they did give the red and black eleven a first-class game. New Castle had 17 first downs to three for South Hills.

"Unlucky Breaks".

The New Castle team really played a better game than the score would indicate. Several times the red and black jerseyed men drove deep into South Hills territory and were on their way to touchdowns, when fumbles, penalties and whistles caused disruption of plans. Twice New Castle backfield men ripped their way over the goal-line only to be called back and severe penalties inflicted for violations of various natures.

At least five red and black players were reduced to the crippled list due to the battle Saturday. Arthur Craft, stellar end was removed early in the game with a badly bruised hand. Sillman, Cuba and McIntosh were forced to retire with injuries to arms and legs. Mooney was also rather badly used up and retired for a substitute.

It was a fine game to watch from a spectators standpoint. There was perhaps every kind of football shown. Clever end runs, passes, kicks, fumbles etc. Both teams shared equally well in forward passing the wet soggy ball. New Castle made two passes good out of eight attempts, while South Hills tossed four passes and made two of them good.

Line Play Is Fine

The New Castle linemen outweighed a little for the first time this year, showed up very well. The locals were charging low and hard and spilled a number of South Hills plays before they were properly under way. DiCarbo and Mooney were in the thick of the game. Cuba and Alexander upheld the tackle jobs in fine manner and "Bennie" Ciccone was a tower of strength on the center of the line. Ostrosky and Craft played a good game at end, and when Craft had to retire Joe Waggoner a first-year man filled the berth in a manner that gives him first choice next year with the end jobs very open.

As said before the New Castle rejuvenated backfield performed brilliantly. Coach Bridenbaugh is blessed with a set of backs this year that will be hard to beat. With McIntosh and Harper used to plunge the line, and Shaffer and McAuley to skirt the ends the ball carrying department was first class. Sillman and Fernati, injected into the game at halfback posts failed to weaken the offensive attack.

Visitors Put Up Fight

It was a hard fighting South Hills team that kept trying until the final whistle ended the game. The Pittsburgh team was out to win and to keep their slate clean and it was only after a most desperate effort that they left the field satisfied that they had given their all and that a superior team had gained the victory. Coach Mazeski used inumerable reserve men in an effort to plug up the weak holes, but his "shock troops" were not equal to the big task of throttling the New Castle boys.

The South Hills team didn't threaten the New Castle goal-line once. The invaders never got beyond the 20-yard line and then this occasion was very brief. The visitors had a good punter in Riske the signal barker and this fact gave them a big advantage.

McIntosh Tallies

Captain Tommy Harper and Captain Davis were called to the center of the field at the start of the game for the toss of the coin. Harper won the toss and elected to kickoff to South Hills at the southern goal. Shaffer kicked off and Critchlow received for South Hills making five yards before being downed in a pool of water. Critchlow and Pietsch tried to hit the New Castle line but found the going too tough and Riske was forced to punt. Riske got away a beautiful 45-yard kick that carried the ball over the goal-line and the ball was given to New Castle on their own 20-yard line. Harper and McIntosh on two plays made it first down. The locals were penalized on the next play 5 yards. Harper and Shaffer together picked up another first down. New Castle was again penalized. Harper was stopped by Currie without a gain.

Shaffer kicked to Riske who was stopped on the 27-yard line. Pietsch fumbled and Cuba recovered for New Castle on the 35-yard line. Harper fumbled and Currie recovered for South Hills. Riske kicked to New Castle out of bounds on the 50-yard line. Harper shot around end for a gain of 15-yards and a first down. McAuley ran out of bounds on the 30-yard line. Another penalty of 5-yards for New Castle, a pass failed. Shaffer kicked to Davis of South Hills who fumbled the ball and Paul Cuba, New Castle left tackle fell on the ball on the 10-yard line. Harper carried the ball to the 9-yard line on a line buck. Shaffer made it first down on the 1-yard line. McIntosh plunged it over on the next play. Shaffer's try for a dropkick was blocked. New Castle 6, South Hills 0. Craft was hurt on the play that produced the touchdown and was replaced by Waggoner.

Riske Makes Long Run

Shaffer kicked off to Pietsch on the 30-yard line and the big South Hills fullback came back to the 40-yard line before he was stopped. South Hills could not gain and Riske kicked to New Castle out of bounds on the 40-yard line. McAudley shot around end for a five-yard gain as the first quarter ended. New Castle 6, South Hills 0. New Castle had the ball on the 42-yard line when the whistle blew.

Harper made three yards at the start of the second quarter, and McIntosh made it first down. Waddell replaced Dague for South Hills. Shaffer was forced to kick when New Castle lost considerable yardage on a bad play. Riske grabbed the punt and raced 35-yards before he was downed. Critchlow was stopped. Dadley replaced Davis for South Hills. Riske shot a pass to Currie for a gain of 8-yards. A South Hills pass failed. South Hills lost the ball on downs, on the 30-yard line. McIntosh made five through the line. Sillman replaced McAuley for New Castle, and Brown replaced Craig for South Hills. Harper made a first down. Harper fumbled and Parke recovered on the 42-yard line. A pass Riske to Currie netted five yards. Jones replaced Riske for South Hills.

Shaffer Plunges Over

Harper intercepted a South Hills pass and ran 15-yards to the 50-yard line. Sillman ran out of bounds after picking up three yards. W. Craig replaced Haney for South Hills. Shaffer made a first down on the 40. McIntosh made three at tackle, Harper made a first down on the next play by scampering through the South Hills line and being stopped on the 18-yard line. Sillman made three at tackle, Harper carried the ball to the 2-yard line. Shaffer plunged it over. Shaffer's try for extra-point failed. New Castle 12, South Hills 0. New Castle was headed for another touchdown at the end of the first half when Waggoner recovered a fumble by Pietsch on the 28-yard line and Harper had raced to the 17-yard line. The half ended New Castle 12, South Hills 0.

Local Rally Halted

Shaffer kicked off to Pietsch at the start of the third quarter, and he came back 15 yards. Davis made a first down for South Hills. Riske kicked to Shaffer for no gain. New Castle penalized five yards. Harper made a first down on the 45-yard line. McIntosh and Harper made it first down for New Castle on the 35-yard line. Cuba was hurt on the play but remained in the game. New Castle lost the ball on downs and Riske kicked to Sillman on 50-yard line with South Hills failing to execute one play. Sheffer punted to Riske on the 10-yard line, Pietsch made three yards, and Riske punted to Shaffer on the 30-yard line. Shaffer made seven and Harper made it first down on the 15-yard line. Sillman carried the ball to the 11-yard line. New Castle lost possession of the ball on the 9-yard line, on downs. Haney replaced Waddell for South Hills.

Riske kicked to Sillman who made a 15-yard return. McIntosh was hurt and replaced by Fernati. New Castle had the ball on the 27-yard line. Fernati made three, Sillman picked up two, and Harper was stopped. New Castle had the ball on the 20-yard line at the end of the third quarter. New Castle 12, South Hills 0.

Lose Chance To Score

Howley replaced Cuba for New Castle. Sillman ran the ball to the 2-yard line. Harper crossed the line on the next play but New Castle drew a 15-yard penalty and the touchdown didn't count. A pass failed, a triple pass with Harper carrying the ball lost three yards, another pass failed and New Castle lost the ball on the 19-yard line. Pietsch carried the ball three straight times for South Hills and made a first down. Beres went in for Bender at guard. Poole replaced Davis for South Hills. Riske kicked to Sillman who made an 8-yard return. McAuley replaced Sillman who injured his ankle. A pass Shaffer to Fernati made it first down and a gain of 23-yards, a pass failed, Riske recovered a New Castle fumble on the 30-yard line. Poole made 8-yards. New Castle was penalized 15-yards. A South Hills pass failed. Dufford replaced Ciccone for New Castle.

Riske kicked to Fernati who made 8-yards in running back the kick. A pass Shaffer to Fernati was good for 5-yards. Two New Castle passes failed and the locals drew a 5-yard penalty. Shaffer punted to Riske. South Hills lost the ball on downs. Harper raced 35-yards to the 10-yard line through a broken field. New Castle was penalized 5-yards for offside. A New Castle man fumbled the ball on the nxt play on the 2 yard line. New Castle might have added a third touchdown at this point had the whistle not ended the game.

WESTMINSTER PREPARES FOR BETHANY GAME

Blue And White To Prepare For Wellsburg Contest On Saturday

(Special To The News)

NEW WILMINGTON, Pa., Nov. 5.—Coach "Dike" Beede's Westminster College gridders have but three games remaining on the 1928 schedule. Starting tomorrow, the United Presbyterians will point to the Bethany game to be played Saturday at Wellsburg, West Virginia.

No practice session was called for today, the gridders being used up in the Duquesne game Saturday. A number of men injured in earlier contests had old injuries made worse in the Duke game. In all probability, Beede will have another batch of new men on the first team when the Titans line up against the Bisons next Saturday.

Unless Dible, fleet halfback, improves, Beede will start Fred Palmer freshman flash. With Lauder out, "Petey" Campbell, a light but game halfback, will be used at the right halfback post. McQuiston and Holzapfel are still available for the quarterback post; Havrilla and Michaels for the fullback position; and Hall and Frack are available for the halfback positions.

Westminster and Bethany have not met on the gridiron since 1926 when the two teams played to a 6-6 tie to Wellsburg. In this game, William "Red" Crowell of Sharon snared one of McQuiston's passes and raced 50 yards for a touchdoyn a few minutes after the Bisons had scored. From that point on, neither team was able to do much.

Crowell may get an opportunity to see action against the Bisons again on Saturday. Forsha, one of the best wingmen in the district, is still nursing injuries sustained in the Thiel game and will not be in condition to play until the Waynesburg contest here November 17. As a result Tweedy, Pipoly, and Crowell will have to take care of the end positions.

Westminster followers are convinced that there is latent power in the United Presbyterian outfit after the showing made against Grove City, Thiel, and Duquesne. Even Geneva will have no easy time of it at New Wilmington when they close the conference race on November 24.

Union High Gridders Prepare For Game With Slippery Rock

Local Township Players Will Oppose College Town Lads Saturday

Coach L. H. Burnham and his Union High footballers today commence preparations for the promising engagement with the Slippery Rock High lads, which will be played at Scotland Lane on Saturday, Nov. 10 at 2:30 p. m.

Indications are that interest in this battle will exceed even the greatest expectations of authorities. The New Castle High school eleven will be at Greensburg on this date and the Union fray will offer the only means of enjoyment in this district.

Union has gained a reputation through its football squad this year, and last week's triumph over the famed Hickory High team of Sharon by a count of 12-0 added further laurels to their crown. Reports are that Slippery Rock has quite a team this year, and certain it is that the conflict on the Union township plot this week will be one worthy of witnessing.

Will Arm Cars With Bullet Proof Glass

(International News Service)

PITTSBURGH, Nov. 5.—Police officials here have announced that the department will soon equip its police and detective emergency cars with a new bullet proof glass which has recently been perfected by the Pittsburgh Plate Glass Company.

The new glass was recently placed under one of the most strenuous tests ever given to a piece of transparent material. Detectives armed with 30-30 caliber revolvers and steel jacketed bullets failed to pierce the bullet proof glass.

Police officials announced that the windshields and the rear glass of the emergency machines would be equipped first. It is then proposed to equip the other glass enclosures with the new product.

Duquesne Defeats Westminster 20-6

New Wilmington Eleven Weakens In Last Quarter And Loses Game

Diminutive Halfback On Westminster Team Proves To Be Star

(Special To The News)

PITTSBURGH, Pa., Nov. 5.—Coach Elmer Layden's too-numerous-to-mention Dukes proved Saturday that a team is no better than its reserve material, when the Duquesne gridders by sheer force of numbers defeated the crippled Westminster outfit of "Dike" Beede by a 20 to 6 score on the Bluff field.

It was the third victory of the Dukes over Westminster teams in three years, and was the Pittsburgh school's first tri-state conference victory of the season and Westminster's first conference defeat.

Not until the waning moments of the game, when the valiant Westminster crew had spent its force and the typical Pittsburgh haze made the plays seem out of focus, were the Laydenmen able to get the upper hand, the score standing at six-all at the end of the third period.

Palmer, Boone Shine

The United Presbyterians made 10 first downs to five for the Dukes. Fred Palmer, weighing 140 pounds including the headgear, stole the thunder as far as the press box was concerned and, for that matter, was the most brilliant back on the field. The stripling Westminster half back was responsible for five of his team's first downs and carried the ball 140 yards from scrimmage — a yard for each pound. Needless to say, Westminster followers hope that he increases in poundage before another season rolls around.

"Chappie" Boone, Westminster's small but compact center, made himself just about as irritating as a hundred needles forgotten in the seat of an armchair. The former Turtle Creek high star smeared the Duquesne line on almost every play, tackled the Duke backs before they had a chance to start, blocked DeViney's attempt at placement after the first touchdown,and generally demoralized ambitious Laydenites who aspired to fame through cracking the center of the United Presbyterian line.

Dombrowski, Fuller, and Sweet, Westminster linemen, played outoutstanding games on both offense and defense despite the fact that Layden used three and four different men against each one.

Captain Furno Scores

Captain Joe Furno, iron-man tackle on the Beede machine, covered himself with glory by scoring his first touchdown in four years of college football and incidentally making the first Westminster tally against the Dukes in three years. The sturdy leader, after shifting to the end of the line so as to be eligible for a pass, took McQuiston's 40-yard heave and ran 26 yards unmolested to score.

Captain "Buff" Donelli of Duquesne had plenty of competition in the punting department with Jimmy McQuiston, Westminster quarter, matching him kick for kick. "Ganzy" Benedict and Kovalchick, Duke backs, performed brilliantly and Turk former New Castle boy, played a good game for the Laydenmen. Perhaps the most brilliant play of the game was DeViney's run after catching McQuiston's punt in the first quarter. The Wee Duke back scampered through the entire Titan outfit for 54 yards and a touchdown.

Dukes Score First

The first period was marred by penalties, the Dukes receiving four totaling 40 yards and Westminster receiving one for five yards. After an exchange of punts, Palmer was unabl to gain on two attempts, and McQuiston punted to DeViney on the Duke 46-yard mark. The fleet midget raced through the entire Titan team for a touchdown. DeViney's attempt at a placement kick was blocked by Boone, Westminster center.

From this point on to the end of the quarter, Westminster held the upper hand. After the Dukes made a first down on the Titan 42-yard line, Palmer recovered Todd's fumble on the 39-yard line. Havrilla, Lauder, and Palmer then ripped the Duke line for two first downs in succession, the ball being in Westminster's possession on the Duke 37-yard line as the first period ended.

Second Period

Coach Layden sent in 10 new players to start the second period, Kovalchick, fullback, being the only one to remain of the starting lineup. This Rockne-like move brought a riot of cheers from the Duke stands, but the embattled U. P. outfit seemed to play even better against the fresh material.

The Dukes made two first downs in succession with Kovalchick and Donelli carrying the ball, but Donelli was soon forced to punt to McQuiston. Following an exchange of punts, Silverstein intercepted McQuiston's pass on the Westminster 35-yard line. Benedict and Donelli then opened up a forward pass attack, but Tweedy and McQuiston batted the tosses down, so the Dukes lost the ball.

After an incompiete pass, McQuiston tossed one to Palmer for an eight-yard gain. Pipoly, on an end-around play, made three and first down. Palmer added four yards and then lost five on a lateral pass. On the next play,McQuiston tossed a pass to Michaels for a 14-yard gain. The ball was lost on downs on the Duke 35-yard line. The Dukes again were unable to gain and Donelli punted to McQuiston on the 25-yard line as the half ended. Score: Duquesne 6, Westminster 0.

Westminster Scores

DeViney kicked off to Furno on the Westminster 34-yard line to start the second half. On the second play, McQuiston tossed a 40-yard pass to Furno who raced the remaining 26 yards for a touchdown. McQuiston's drop-kick for the extra point was inches short.

McQuiston then kicked off to DeViney on the Duke 36-yard line. Unable to gain, Todd punted to McQuiston on the 15-yard mark and the Westminster quarter returned it to the 34 before being downed.

It was in this frame that Palmer tore off gains of 20 and 25 yards through the Duke line, but neither team threatened to score.

Last Quarter

A penalty for roughing the kicker, two drives by Benedict, and a long forward, Benedict to Pratt, gave the Dukes the ball on the Westminster three-yard line at the start of the fourth period. On the second attempt, Kovalchick pushed the ball over for a touchdown. Donelli's placement kick was good.

Later a fumble by Palmer gave the Dukes another chance to score. Benedict scooped up the fumble and ran 24 yards.

After drives by Donelli and Kovalchick, McCarthy took it over for the count. Donelli's placement kick was good.

McQuiston started a barrage of forwards toward the end of the game with little effect.

Westminster made 10 first downs and carried the ball 240 yards from scrimmage. The Dukes made five first downs and made 197 yards from scrimmage.

McQuiston completed but three forwards out of 17 attempted, but these three were good for 56 yards. Two Titan passes were intercepted. The Dukes made one pass out of six good.

Greensburg To Be Met On Saturday

New Castle High Gridders Prepare For Contest At Greensburg On Saturday

New Castle High school football team has a stiff task to perform on this coming Saturday afternoon. The strong Greensburg high team will be met at Greensburg.

It will mark the first time in the history of New Castle High that red and black athletic team has encountered Greensburg. A good game is in prospect.

Arrangements have been made for a special train to Greensburg over the Pennsylvania railroad. The special will likely leave New Castle around 9 o'clock next Saturday morning.

Booster Game Set For November 17th

Jupiter Pluvius, the uninvited guest to the Booster Day ceremonies at Franklin Field on Saturday afternoon, decided to spoil the party, and he did a very good job. The exercises were postponed until Saturday, Nov. 17.

The Booster Day ceremonies will now take place when the highly touted Beaver Falls High team meets New Castle at the local stadium.

General Chairman William Connery, after a consultation with his aides at noon on Saturday, decided to cancel the arrangements owing to the very inclement weather and the sloppy field.

A bigger and better program will be arranged for, with two more weeks of preparation.

MEN WHO GUARD THEIR HEALTH SMOKE CIGARS

"Philadelphia" Jack O'Brien
Famous Physical Culture Expert
Advises Men Who Smoke, to Smoke Cigars

JACK O'BRIEN has conditioned more prominent men and reduced more prominent waistlines than any man living. He advises men who smoke to smoke cigars. "Altho I have never used tobacco in any form I've noticed that soon after a man switches from other forms of tobacco to cigars, "says "Philadelphia" Jack O'Brien, "his wind improves, his nerves steady and he has more endurance, and so tires less easily than before."

A cigar is smoked for taste—slowly and leisurely—one is not lighted from the butt of another, so cigar smoking never degenerates into a nervous habit. And the fine, full flavor of a cigar can be enjoyed without inhalation.

To quote a prominent New York specialist: "The principal reason for throat troubles amongst smokers is the burning, drying effect of hot tobacco smoke upon the tender tissues of the throat. Cigar smoke is cool, since the tobacco burns slowly and is further cooled and filtered as it is drawn through the body of the cigar."

Make this test for a week—smoke cigars exclusively and you will find yourself feeling better, with no cough or throat irritation, improved nerves, increased vitality and less of that tired feeling. To really test cigars, with justice to yourself and to cigars, we suggest the test be made with La Palinas.

HYBERT AND FIRPO CLASH HERE TONIGHT

Each Confident Of Winning "Go"

Goodman, Keller, Rio, Adair, O'Leary, Dugan, Elmo, Brown To Show Punches

JOLLY BOWL CONTAINS TWO HOT AIR HEATERS

By ED. FRITZ

Fans and fanettes who dote on pugilistic action should have their lust fully appeased tonight when Young Firpo of Louisville and Floyd Hybert of Ashtabula clash in a 10-round bout at Jolly Bowl. The pair met recently in this city and after 10 vicious rounds of red hot "going" the judges split on the decision and the referee awarded the "go" to Hybert, which did not please the Firpo element, hence the meeting tonight.

In their first encounter the fight was practically even for seven of the 10 rounds. It was marked by cunning tricks, and according to some of the sharper eyes molars and elbows were brought into play. No mercy was shown nor quarter asked, and when the 156-pounders had crawled from the ring they showed clear evidence of having gone through something that was more than an ordinary boxing bout.

Trained to Edge

During the past week Firpo has been training in the Dunn gymnasium at Cleveland. Hybert has been going through his vigorous preparatory work in the stable of Eddie Mead in Cleveland. They arrived here last night, repaired to The Leslie and are reported to be in the pink of condition. Each is confident of winning and fans who like to witness "stand-up-and-knock-down" pugilism will be gathered at the ringside tonight.

Joey Goodman, Norfolk Hebrew, and Jack Keller of Toledo, will battle in the six-round battle. Keller was substituted for Tony Lupica, who sustained a gashed eye Friday night. Jack is one of a family of fighters, as there are four in his family.

Frankie Rio, former Sharon lad, will meet Louie Adair of Toledo in a six-round bout. Adair has been a "club fighter" at the Terminal A. C. in Toledo and believes a good offense is a good defense. Adair, it is said, is one of the best boys turned out of the Toledo amateur ranks.

O'Leary Battles Dugan

Bernie Dugan, who fights Tom O'Leary, is another Toledo fighter. He is reported to be a good boxer, fast, and a stiff puncher. Tom is a swinger who likes to bore in. He hits good with his right hand, as several of his opponents can attest. They will go four rounds.

Elmo the Mighty, chockful of confidence on account of his many victories, will take on Steve Brown of Elyria. Thee light-heavyweights are docketed for a trip over the four-round route and no doubt Elmo will provide fans with their usual bag of laughter.

The bowl is enclosed, heated, ventilated and has been improved by the construction of a floor. The bell will will ring at 8:15 p. m. and if the boxing commission performs according to their recent action, a referee and judges from Pittsburgh will officiate.

A Fast-Stepping Southerner By Feg Murray

You've heard, no doubt, of the Commodores of Vanderbilt university, the team that has beaten Chattanooga, Colgate, Texas, Tulane and Virginia so far this season, the last named by a score of 34 to 0. But have you heard of Captain Jimmy Armistead, one of the leading point-scorers in the country last year, and running riot on southern gridirons again this season?

Against Virginia, a team that Bill Roper's Princeton Tigers couldn't score on, Jimmy Armistead tallied four times, once from the kick-off after an 80-yard run, and twice from scrimmages on his own side of midfield. Had one of the Princeton boys put on a show like that in Palmer stadium, he would be ranked right now with "Onward Christian" Cagle as the oustanding ball-carrier of the country. Jim plays quarterback, and from the picture you can see that he has the high dome necessary for deep thinking.

Coach Dan McGugin, former Michigan star, and son-in-law (or is it brother-in-law?) of Fielding H. Yost, is the oldest gridiron mentor in the south in point of service, and turns out consistently good football teams at the Nashville institution. Many great football players have come from Vanderbilt, and Bill Spears, all-American choice of many for quarterback in 1926, was the best ball-carrier and field general in the south for a couple of seasons. Last year "Vandy" lost only to Texas, and was tied by Georgie Tech and Tennessee. The climax game of the season is with Sewanee on Thanksgiving Day.

"I'm impartial," said the resident of South Boston. "I don't care who beats Harvard."

Bessemer In Scoreless Tie

High School Team Plays New Wilmington To 0-0 Score On Saturday

BOTH TEAMS BATTLE HARD FOR VICTORY

By CHARLES LANDOLF

BESSEMER, Pa., Nov. 5.—One of the most thrilling gridiron games ever to be staged by two class B high school elevens was enacted here Saturday afternoon. The Bessemer high team spilled the dope bucket by holding the powerful New Wilmington gridders to a 0-0 score before several hundred fans of both towns. The game was played in a sea of mud and fumbles were plentiful on the part of both teams.

Mack, captain of the local high school, won the toss of the coin and elected to defend the south goal. The first quarter was played like see-saw", with both elevens fumbling the pigskin frequently. Most of the playing was done in mid-field, with the college town gridders having the edge. In this period they scored but one first down, while the Bessemer team found the going hard and failed to register a first down. The quarter ended with New Wilmington in possession of the ball on the 60-yard line.

Bessemer at the start of the second quarter demonstrated a neat piece of defensive teamwork by holding the college gridders from crossing their goal with the ball on the four-yard mark. As the playing started Davis plunged through the line for four yards, and on the next play Neal scored a first down. Patterson, on the next play, hurled a pass to Davis which netted five yards. New Wilmington showed football smartness by punting on the next play in order to advance the ball nearer to their opponents' goal line. New Wilmington kicked and stopped Shrefler on the 14-yard line. Bessemer, from behind their goal line, returned the punt out of danger, but Eagleson, the 107-pound halfback, received the pigskin and raced the ball to the 11-yard mark. Davis and Neal, on two plays, carried the ball to eight yards from the goal line. With the ball on the five-yard line Bessemer at this stage showed their ability by forcing the blue and gold team to forfeit the ball on downs. This was the nearest either team came to scoring. Bessemer kicked to the visitors and after several plays in which the New Wilmington team made a steady march down the field, the whistle blew, ending the first half with the ball on the 43-yard line.

Practically all of the playing in the third quarter was done in mid-field, with both outfits fumbling and punting a total of eight times. New Wilmington carried the ball as far as the 36-yard line, but the Fredericks coached machine halted any further advancing of the ball by recovering a fumbled ball. After several plays which added another fumble, the New Wilmington eleven recovered the ball on the 44-yard line as the third quarter ended.

In the final quarter of play Bessemer outplayed the visitors. A fumble on the 22-yard line was costly to the local team, as they made a steady march down the field before losing the ball. In this quarter both aggregations attempted several passes, which netted some yardage. The New Wilmington eleven, after recovering a pass, attempted a pass, which gained 25 yards and placed the pigskin on the 28-yard line. The final whistle blew shortly after this pass was completed, ending the gruelling contest with the team in possession of the ball on the 28-yard mark.

New Wilmington won the first downs scoring honors with five, to three for Bessemer.

Both teams played very clean football and were penalized only a total of 10 yards. Both penalties were for offside.

By virtue of the tie three class B high schools are now deadlocked for the championship of class B high schools in Lawrence county. For the New Wilmington team the playing of Davis, Eagleson, Neal and Patterson featured, while Grist, Mack and Shrefler were the best for the Bessemer eleven.

Makes Report Of Eggs Production Of His Chickens

Harry Blews of 940 Ryan avenue, reports that he has kept record for one year of the production of eggs of his flock of White Leghorn hens, and that he finds they averaged about 252 eggs each during that period.

It is estimated that two per cent of those who love football would attend a game played by stars no longer connected with any college.

Some Of Leaders Given Big Set Back Saturday In Collegiate Contests

While he is not officially listed in any of the box scores of Saturday's many and varied gridiron struggles, Old Man Perversity the best destroyer of football hopes in the world was very much in evidence. East and West alike felt the force of his misanthropic work, and today the list of undefeated teams is as lean as an underfed greyhound.

Gather around customers and hearken to the list of those who had a chance until Saturday but today are out farther than the 12 mile limit. New York University, Ohio State, Stanford, Illinois, while on the other hand Michigan, Georgetown and Grove City will testify that there is a Santa Claus.

Wild and Wooly

It was a wild and wooly day, a day that saw favorites take it just above the necktie and underdogs come crashing through to undreamed of heights. Who would have thought that Pitt would humble Syracuse 18-0, or that Michigan would take Illinois 3-0, or that Grove City would down Geneva 12-6, or that Princeton and Ohio State, would tie, 6-6, or that Southern California would take Stanford, 10-0, or that Georgetown would sink New York U, 7-2. Well all these things happened boys and girls so that today, reading from left to right and pausing for the proper punctuation marks, the leaders of the country seem to be Army, Georgetown, Carnegie Tech, and Georgia Tech. Somebody will win the Big Ten Conference title, but that somebody can hardly classify as a national contender.

Here in New Castle, the New Castle High school team defeated South Hills of Pittsburgh 12-0 but that hardly ranks as important news. Walloping Pittsburgh high school teams this year is the fondest thing the Red and Black does, so we'll pass that victory.

One For Alec Fox

Down in Pittsburgh Alec Fox and his gridders ran the big orange team from Syracuse dizzy 18-0. Washington and Jefferson recovered its aplomb sufficiently to tie Lafayette 13-13, and Duquesne managed to win over Westminster 20-6, with the glory of the game going to Westminster for a dogged fight.

Knute Rockne and his Irish from Notre Dame battered Penn State 9-0, and get this friends and fellow countrymen, the Navy won a decisive victory. The Midshipmen sunk the Wesleyan craft 37-0, which is nothing if not decisive.

Chicago lost its usual game, this time to Pennsylvania, the score being 20-13. There is some rumor of matching Chicago with Vassar before the season ends, just to put one on the winning side.

As for Michigan, m'dear you'll just love this. Michigan did a complete right about and surprised something like 8,476,952 people by defeating Illinois, the pride of the Big Ten by a 3-0 score. From now until the rest of the season the Big Ten is little more than a Pair of Fives. But to return to Michigan, you never know when those lads are licked. Neither do they.

Hey Hey, Grove City

Grove City pulled its usual nasty crack on Geneva and totally ruined a perfectly good season for the Covenanters. After polishing off Duquesne, Geneva was willing to admit that they had the Class B title sewed up in a linen bag. And then Ralph Day and his boy friends from Grove City cut the stitches. The score, 12-6.

Walter Duff will hardly be pleased with the rough manner in which Harvard ran over Lehigh, the tune being 39-0. And Harvard is so upset when anybody gets rought, at least anybody from Princeton. Georgia Tech continued its ramblin' wreckage by a 32 to 7 win over Oglethorpe which needn't alarm anybody, while Wisconsin won its first intersectional tilt since 1912 when it took Alabama 15-0.

The Army held a practice game with Depauw winning 38-12, and Amherst shut the Massachusetts Aggies out 13-0. Purdue, the school where Jack Christman is starring took Case like Grant took Richmond winning 19-0. Cornell and Columbia called its quits with a 0-0 tie, Colgate defeated Wabash and Yale added another to its scalp by defeating Dartmouth 18-0. Pop Warner stopped a fast one when his Leland-Stanford, team thought to be the Pacific Coast's best bet this year was defeated by the University of Southern California, 10-0.

Davis-Elkins, the Little Giants this year rolled up 39 points to Concord's none, while the Nebraska Corn Huskers steam rolled their way to a 20-0 victory over Kansas.

Thiel College tied Allegheny 6-6 which complicates the Class B business somewhat. Westminster defeated Thiel. Thiel tied with Allegheny. Allegheny defeated Westminster and that's just another thing to think over.

It was a weird day, a day of fumbles and surprises, a day that made it easier for the experts to pick the winners. But then an expert is just an ordinary chap a long way from home.

Two Automobiles Stolen From Street

Two automobiles were reported to the police as having been stolen, over the week end.

Hudson Coach, 1925 model, Pennsylvania license 519-013 belonging to N. L. Garder, 502 Neshannock boulevard was stolen from Park avenue near the Highland United Presbyterian church. It was taken between 7:15 p. m. and 9 p. m.

N. Y. STOCKS

(International News Service)

NEW YORK, Nov. 5.—Vigorous forward movements of the oil stocks and specialties in extremely heavy trading in the speculative favorites featured the first hour in the stock market today. The popular standard oils (New York and New Jersey) were turned over in blocks of 5,000 to 15,000 shares at the highest prices of the year, and Bermudall Class A stock opened the new week with a transfer of 50,000 shares at 45½ up 4½ points from Saturday's close.

The week-end accumulation of buying orders was smaller than in the last few weeks, due in large measure to the cautionary attitude of big and small traders on the eve of the election.

A 7 per cent renewal rate for call money signalized the easing up of money conditions following the completion of the November bank settlements. Funds were in good supply for all purposes.

Woolworth's new 7-point to 214 was the feature of the high-priced specialties. The motor stocks, steels and other high priced market favorites were comparatively quiet, as also were the bulk of the coppers. Erie led the speculative rails with a new gain of 1 point at 58½. Missouri Pacific and Southwestern-merger stocks were firm.

OBJECT OF PUNISHMENT.

We will not punish a man because he hath offended but that he may offend no more; nor does punishment ever look to the past but to the future; for it is not the result of passion but that the same thing may be guarded against in time to come. —Seneca.

Oh, how great is human frailty, which is always prone to vice! Today thou confessed thy sins and tomorrow again thou committest what thou didst confess. Now thou resolvest to take care and after an hour thou dost as if thou hadst never resolved.—Thomas A. Kempis.

NATIONS OBSERVE DECADE OF PEACE ARMISTICE DAY

Public demonstrations in recognition of those who "went west" during the World war are scheduled to take place at the unknown soldiers' tombs in the United States, Great Britain and France on Armistice Day, Nov. 11, marking a decade of truce among the leading nations of the world. Upper left shows the tomb of the unknown soldier at Westminster Abbey, London. Above is where France's warrior is at rest in the Triumphal Arch, Paris; below is a view of America's unknown soldier's tomb at Arlington, Va.

SEE NEW BRITISH 10,000-TON CRUISERS AS FAILURES

Great Britain's new 10,000-ton cruisers are considered failures, according to Frederick W. Fish, editor of the U. S. Navy magazine. As a result no more of the 10,000-ton type are to be built and in their stead smaller, lighter and more efficient craft are to be constructed, Fish says. Above, the Berwick, 10,000-ton cruiser in British service; lower right, the Australia, of the same type, being completed. Lower left, plans of the proposed smaller craft.
